

Chapter 1 - Friday Before

Part 1 - Kris

Today during fourth period, I was asked to the office, when I got there I was invited into Mrs. McDonald's office. Mr.

Harris was there too. She asked, "Kris, we need a favor from you. Would you please do The Naked in School Program for us? We want to restart it at Wilson High this year and make it work like it does at Fort Summer High School."

"Oh my god! I can't do that! I've never been naked around anyone and now you want me to be naked in front of the whole school!"

She said, "We understand your reluctance but you are going to try to make it easier on you by putting in the buddy system. That's where we get a boy from your class to be your partner. We really need you to do it because you're one of the most popular girls in the school. If you do it maybe some of the others will too. We'll even let you pick your own partner?"

"I'll do it for you, but I don't know who I want to be my partner. Maybe I can let you know tomorrow at our Cross Country Invitational Meet. I go to the middle school and help Miss Stevens, will I have to be naked there, too?"

Mrs McDonald said, "Yes, compulsory nudity will continue within the confines of the school during school hours and shall include all school sponsored activities during or after normal school hours." She read that from the Program Pamphlet.

I added, "That means my Cross Country meets and practice are included too, as they are school events."

They both agreed with me and thanked me for doing this for them. By time the meeting was over, it was time for me to go to the middle school where I'm an aide for Miss Stevens. She teaches health and I mostly help her grade papers. Fifth period, she has an eighth grade class with my brother and sisters in it. The sixth period is her free one.

I was a bit worried that Miss Stevens might not want me to be naked in front of her middle school class so when we were alone I said "Miss Stevens, I was asked by the Mrs. McDonald to help reactivate The Naked in School Program. I'm not sure why, but I agreed to do it. That means that I will be naked when I come to help you next week. Will that be okay with you or should we make other arrangements?"

She said, "That's okay with me, if you think you can handle it."

"I know it's going to be hard at first, but they are going to use the buddy system and I get to pick my own partner. I really don't know which boy in the school I'd trust for support, do you have any idea?"

Miss Stevens said, "I think for you the best idea is to find a boy who is in most of your classes and maybe on your cross country team, too." I thanked her as the final bell rang. It was time for me to leave and go to cross country practice.

Later on I told my boyfriend, John Jacobs, "Hi sweetie, I'm going to do The Naked in School Program next week."

He said, "Why are you going to that? You won't even let me see your tits yet you're going to be fully naked in front of the whole school. You will make me look an idiot. If you do that I'm going to break up with you."

I started crying and said, "I already promised Mrs. McDonald that I was going to do it and I am. If you had treated me like a person instead of a possession you would have had plenty of chances to see me naked in private. Now you can't put up with me being naked in front of the whole school. I don't want you to be my boyfriend either." I walked away from him, so fast and furious that I felt like I was running. I didn't want to hear anymore from him either.

Oh yes, I'm a virgin, even though I've had a few boyfriends.

When mom picked us up at school, I told her in the car. "I was asked to be in the Naked in School Program next week and that I'm going to do it."

Mom said, "Okay, it's your decision but may I ask why you are doing this?"

"Can we wait until we get home with dad and I can tell you both at the same time?" Mom agreed.

We arrived home, my brother, sister and I walked in the house and saw Dad. I said, "Hey Dad, I told mom in the car I was going to be in the Naked in School program next week. She asked me why and I said I wanted to tell you both together." Mum came in and sat down with Dad. "The reason I agreed to do Naked in School was that I want it to work out here like it works at Fort Summer High School. Mrs McDonald said that if no popular girls do it then it would fail. They have added the buddy system this year and I can pick my own boy partner. I will be naked from next Monday till Friday in school hours and at school sponsored events outside school hours and at the weekend. That includes when I go to the middle school and help Miss Stevens and Cross Country meets too."

Dad asked "What is the buddy system?"

"I find a boy who is in most of my classes that I can walk around with. If I need someone to talk to, he's there for me and if he needs someone to talk to, I am there for him too. We'll help each other out with any problems that come up during the day."

He chuckled and said, "Whoa, slow down a little." Then he thought a moment and said, "That sounds good to me, so if you want to do it, I will support you. I think it would be easier on you if you went naked at home this weekend to get used to it. What do you think about that?"

Mom said, "Why don't we make this house a Naked at Home place for the next week."

Dad said, "That would be a wonderful idea and why don't we all join her." Without thinking about it, mom went ahead and took her clothes off and Steph was right behind her.

"Oh my God, you want me to be naked now? I'm not even in the program, yet! I can't do it!"

Mom said, "I don't know why you can't do it here. How will you manage next week? Just look here at your sister and I are getting naked. Now will you strip or do we have to help you?"

"Not right here in front of dad and Kevin! Let me go up to my room and strip in private, then I'll come back out."

Mom replied, "I'm okay with that but remember that you have to come back naked and stay that way around the house."

I agreed and headed to my room. My dad and brother got naked, too. They all went swimming for a little while. Later mom started supper and Steph helped her. When it was ready, mom called me down for supper, but got no answer.

She came up to see what was wrong.

"I can't do it, I'm scared to death. I've been up here crying and crying." My pillow was so wet, Mom could tell.

Mom said, "Honey, you know if you can't do it with people who love and care for you, how will you be able to do on Monday in front of all those kids. If you want to you can start by going topless tonight. But all you can wear is a skirt without panties on." I thanked her and put on a skirt. "Honey, that's too long, please put one of your micro ones on."

I really didn't want to but I did.

I thought "They can look up this skirt and see my pussy. I might as well not wear it." I took off the skirt and went over to Mom naked. Then we walked downstairs together to eat supper. After supper, we sat around and watched TV.

Mom asked me how I was doing.

My reply surprised me when I said "This isn't as bad as I thought it would be but on Monday some of them are going to be feeling me up, too."

Steph asked, "Are you going to be naked during my class?"

"Yes, I'm going to be naked there and at my Cross Country Meets."

Steph said, "I wish I was the one that got to be naked. I'm starting to love it." We all laughed.

Then I added, "I can still wear my uniform tomorrow at the meet. The Program doesn't start until Monday and goes though next Sunday. I don't know who to pick for my partner now. John broke up with me because I'm doing it." I said with a tear in my eye and a sniffle in my nose.

Mom hugged me and said, "Honey, there are a lot better guys out there than him. He only wanted to be with you because you're one of the most popular girls. He seemed to be a selfish sort of person who didn't pay you much attention"

Then she said, "There's another way for you to practice for Monday, run your race tomorrow without your underwear."

"Oh my god! Mom! I don't know if I can do it in front of all those people! Let me think about that and I'll let you know later."

Steph asked, "Can I go watch her without wearing mine?"

Mom said, "Yes, you may. I'll even join you. I'm starting to hate wearing them too." Steph and Mom went shopping, found outfits in the school colors and we agreed to wear them.

"It's all right for you two, I'm the one that has to be naked and you're the ones who are so happy about being naked.

Let me put my uniform on without my underwear, try a test run and see what it feels like." They agreed and I left and came back in it and it looked sexy on me. When I ran you could see my sexy tits bouncing around under it and they sure looked very nice. My tits are not huge, a C cup but they are perky and have a nice shape. I have caught lots of boys looking at them when they are talking to me. I said, "I know they're going to bounce around but for you I'll do it. Thank you for talking me into it." We were all so happy that I'm starting to come out of my shell. Right there in front of my family, I went ahead and took my uniform off. We sat around and watched TV for awhile then we all headed to bed.

Saturday Before

Part 1 - Kris

The next morning, I got up and took my shower, went downstairs and ate breakfast before I got dressed to go to the school's Cross Country Invitational. The whole family went with me. While we were warming up, one of my teammates, Terry May, came over. She asked, "Kris, are you wearing a bra under your top?"

"No bra or panties either, I'm going to be in The Naked in School Program next week, so I'm getting used to it at today's meet. It will be strange letting my tits bounce around but at least I have my uniform on today."

Terry said, "How did they talk you into doing the program?" I told her how it all happened. Then

our Cross Country
Invitational Girls Division was called. It was time to see how I would do without a bra. We walked over to the starting line, took our positions and waited for the gun. The starter pulled the trigger and we were off and running. Normally I would fall back in the beginning, but today I felt good and stayed up with the lead pack. Pretty soon some of the others started slowing down and dropping off from the leading pack. All 3 girls from our school, Terry
May, our best runner,
Tina Conner and I, were in the lead pack. By the end of the race I was able to hold on and finish in seventh place. Our team won the Invitational for the very first time in school history. Terry finished in 3rd place, Tina was in 5th place and a girl from Ft. Summer won the meet, she ran it naked. People were surprised to see her race that way. All our fans were yelling like crazy, surprised to see us 3 coming in that close. We won the 25 points with Ft.
Summer, the defending
State Champs coming in 2nd.

"You don't know, how much fun I had running this race today, Coach. Did you know that I'm going to be running naked in practice and at the meets next week?"

He said, "No I didn't, why will you be doing that?"

"I'm in the Naked in School Program next week."

Then he asked, "Are you going to be able to handle that?"

"I think so" I surprised him when I lifted up my top and flashed my tits at him. Instead of pulling it back down however, I took it off.

His eyes widened and his mouth dropped open. He said, "Wow, I don't think you're going to have a problem with it."

Then I reached down and took my bottoms off, too. He added, "Oh my god, you're naked, may I ask why you did it?"

"I might as well practice, it will make it easier for me to go naked on Monday at school." Then I picked up my clothes and walked over to my family. They congratulated me on my finish, I was so psyched, I didn't even think about getting dressed.

The Wilson High boys also won their meet. Jeff James finished in first place. He looked my way.

The look on his face when he saw me was priceless. He looked like a fish gasping for air when he saw that I was naked. Jeff came in way ahead of everyone. This was the first time anyone from our school had won our Invitational. I was so happy for him,
I ran over, gave him a great big hug and said, "Great race, Jeff you were awesome"

He with a lump in his throat and a semi-hard cock said, "Thank you, Kris, you look awesome yourself. May I ask you why you're naked?"

"The school is starting back the Naked in School Program and I was asked to be first to do it this year. I just told the coach about it, and he wondered if I would be able to race that way. So I showed him I could by stripping here. Why haven't we ever talked before?"

He said, "Really I don't know why, I suppose I was too scared to talk to you. You have a sweet bubbly, personality and some of the best friends around. I'm just a normal everyday guy who has had a crush on you since the 7th grade."

"Oh my god!! I had no idea you even liked me. Would you like to spend some time together so we can get to know each other?"

He said, "What would John Jacobs say about that?"

"He broke up with because I'm going to be in the program. That tells you what type of boyfriend he was. When I needed him the most he wasn't there for me."

Jeff said, "I'd love to spend some time with you, may I take you out for lunch?"

"Let's go ask my parents and see if they have something planned for me right now." We walked over to my parents and asked, "Mom and dad, do we have any plans for now? This is Jeff James and he just won the guys race. I want to spend sometime getting to know him. He's had a crush on me since the 7th grade and I just found out. Jeff just asked me out for lunch, that's why I'm asking"

Dad answered for her and said, "I planned on taking all of us out for lunch as a family. How would you like to join us for lunch, then go and do something together?"

Jeff said, "That sounds like a real good idea."

"Mom, you're right, there are a lot better people around." We all laughed and then I got dressed. I looked at Jeff, and mentioned, "When you take me home later on, don't be surprised if my whole family is naked."

"Why is that?" Jeff asked.

"Mom thinks it will be easier on me to practice at home, so we decided to have 'Naked at Home' for the next week to support me."

Jeff said, "Then it looks like I'll be getting naked there, also."

When he said that, an idea came to me. "Jeff, I was told that I could pick my partner, would you like to be my partner next week?"

He smiled and said, "I'd love to be your partner, do you think Mrs. McDonald would okay it?"

We searched the field for her and saw her by the benches. We walked over and saw that she was talking to Coach.

We waited to get her attention. When she was finished with Coach, she turned to us and she smiled. "Mrs. McDonald, Jeff is the person I want to be my partner, I asked him and he said OK."

At my pronouncement a surprised look crossed her face. She said, "Jeff, I thought you opted out of the program."

"Yes" He said. "I did. The only person I'd want to do it with is Kris and since she asked me, I want to do it with her. I'll get the okay from my parents this weekend and bring you a note in Monday"."

She thanked both of us and said, "So it is Kris and Jeff who will be partners starting Monday." We both thanked her and headed back to my parents.

"Sorry all, I had to go see Mrs. McDonald and tell her that Jeff has agreed to be my partner."

"Dad told Jeff where we were going for lunch and we followed them there in his car. We parked and joined my family. Mom said, "How did you decide on Jeff and how did you talk him into going though the program with you?"

"He's a sweet and caring guy, I want to get to know him better and I don't think there would be a better person in the school to do the program with." Jeff started blushing. I've never seen a deeper shade of red in my life. I kissed him on the cheek, then we all headed into the restaurant. We were seated and ordered.

While we were waiting for the food to arrive, I whispered to him, "Look over there at my mom and my sister." Did he ever give me a funny look. He looked at Mom and Steph. His eyes bugged out and his jaw dropped open. It made me wish, I was wearing a skirt instead of shorts.

He said to me, "Oh my god, they aren't wearing panties and are showing their pussy off!"

I was thinking to myself that if I knew I wouldn't get in trouble, I could go naked right now. I've never had so much fun being naked.

"Do you mind if I take my uniform off, now?" I asked Mom.

She said, "Let me find out, if it's okay. If it is, yes you can." She talked to the manager and asked, "Would you mind if my daughter went naked here? She's going to be in the Naked in School Program next week at her high school."

He said, "I know about that program and we have a new rule here, if you're naked, your meal is free." Mom thanked him, came back to the table and started taking her clothes off. Both Steph and I followed suit and did the same thing.

Instantly there were three pretty naked females at the table.

Jeff looked around and didn't believe the sight at the table, he put his arm around me and held me tight.

"Jeff, are you going to be able to go naked on Monday with me?" Instead of answering me, he went ahead and stripped naked right there in the restaurant. I looked at him and thought "Oh my god, is he nice looking. He sure is hung very nice, too. I hope he'll be my boyfriend sooner or later". I asked, "What you want to do after we have finished eating?"

Part 2 – Jeff

"Would you mind coming over to my house and meet my family?" I asked Kris "I'll have to tell them that I changed my mind and now want to do the program next week with you. They won't believe me either."

Kris said she would love to do that.

"They'll know why I have never been around any girls before, they'll also find out who I've had a crush on all this time."

We sat around and ate together, Kris and I finished eating and we thanked her parents for the meal. I reached down and picked my uniform up and found my car keys and put them on the table. I was about to get dressed. Kris picked up her uniform and surprised her family by not putting it on. Instead she handed it to her mom and said, "I'm not going to need these, could you take them home for me?" I left mine off, too even though I had a hard cock from looking at all these beautiful women.

Her mom said, "Yes I will, but aren't you afraid to go to Jeff's house naked?"

She said, "I'll be naked over there during the week, so they might as well get use to it." We all had a good laugh. Then we left. Kris and I talked all the way to his house not caring that people were looking at us. We were so comfortable together, we forgot we were as naked as the day we were born. I was a gentleman when we arrived, and opened the car door for her I tried not to stare at her pussy as she got out of the car, but I couldn't help myself and my cock reacted to the sight. I started to blush and she did too. Somehow, our hands found each other as we walked to the house. We went inside and saw my mom and dad sitting on the couch in the living room.

Mom asked, "Why are you and this girl naked?"

Jeff said, "Mom and dad, this is Kris Thompson, and she has asked me to be her partner in the Naked in School Program this coming week. I've had a crush on Kris since the 7th grade. As you can see, I would like to be her partner."

She said, "I see you guys are already practicing for it, too. I thought you didn't want to be in the program, but if you do, you have our okay." My dad agreed with her, too.

"Thanks for the permission. I told Mrs. McDonald that I would have it in writing for her on Monday. Could you sign something for me?"

My sister Sandy walked in to the room and saw that Kris and I were naked. She had never seen anyone, except her brother and sister when they were a lot younger kids in the bath, naked before. She was looking us over from head to toe and said, "Oh my god Jeff! Why are you and Kris naked?"

"Well, Kris and I are going to be in the Naked in School Program next week and we've decided to practice now."

Sandy looked at Kris and asked, "Are you going to be naked during Miss Steven's class, too?"

She said, "Yes I am, what do you think your class going to say?"

Sandy said, "I bet, they'll want to be naked with you as much as I want to join you now. Mom, can I please take my clothes off?"

Dad spoke first and said, "Sandy, why don't you go get your brother and sister and we'll have a family discussion about it." She hurried outside and got them. When they came in you should have seen the looks on their faces when they saw Kris and I naked.

Dad said, "Now, that you are all here, I know you can see Jeff and Kris naked. That is reason for this meeting, they are going to be in the Naked in School Program starting Monday. Sandy asked us if she could go naked too I'd like to know what you think about that?"

Jimmy said, "I wouldn't mind doing that since I'll have to do it in high school soon."

Suzy said, "I really hate wearing clothes. I only do because you want me to."

Dad said, "Well if you want to be naked around here you can." The clothes dropped to the floor like leaves from the trees in late fall. All the kids went back to what they were doing, Leaving mom and dad to rake them up.

"Kris and I are going up to my room and talk a bit and get to know each other a little better is that okay?"

Mom said "That's okay with me" as she looked below my waist, she smiled and said "It's obvious that you like girls"

Mom was so happy I was finally dating a girl.

"Wow! This is the first time I've ever gone to a boy's room." Kris said with a nervous giggle. "You even got your parents to okay it." She leaned over to kiss me on the cheek again but I turned and kissed her on the mouth. She opened her mouth and we French kissed for a while. Then I pulled her on the bed and we just lay there holding each other. I've never felt so happy in my life!! She's the first girl I've dated and she's the sweetest one around.

Kris said, "I've dated guys before, but when I'm with you, it seems like time stands still and I'm so happy." We just lay there for a little while longer. Kris looked at the clock. It was 3:30PM. She thought, "I've been laying in his arms for 2 hrs.
I think we fell asleep that way. I'm falling for him hard I hope he's falling for me the same way." When he woke up and kissed her.

She asked, "Do you want to come over to my house and go for a swim?"

"That sounds like fun. There's nothing better than being around the girl I really care about and her family."

As we went downstairs to my car, I called out, "Mom, Kris and I are going over to her house to go swimming. I'll be back later."

There was a faint "OK" in reply from his mom."

Part 3 – Kris

On the drive home, I realized that we lived very close to each other. I was too excited to notice before. We walked in the door and found my mom. "Hi mom, Jeff and I are going for a swim. What do we have planned for tomorrow?"

She said, "Well, I was thinking about having a family barbecue?"

"Would you mind if we invite Jeff's family over to join us?"

She said, "Yes, you can invite them over. I'd love to meet them. How many in your family, Jeff?"

Jeff said, "There are five of us, I have a sister and a brother. May I use the phone to call my parents and see if they have any plans for tomorrow?" I showed him where the phone is and he called his house and spoke to his mom. Then he said, "Mrs. Thompson, my mom would like to talk to you?" They chatted for a little bit.

Mom said, "They are coming over around 10:00AM tomorrow. Kris, thank you for inviting them over, that was very thoughtful of you."

We walked through the house onto the pool deck. Our pool is surrounded by a high fence preventing the neighbors from looking in. All of us kids have our own bedrooms on the second floor. We swam for a while. When we had enough swimming, looking more like prunes than people, we got out and dried off. Mom came out and invited Jeff to join us for supper. She told him that she had already cleared it with his mom. Jeff was glad to stay for supper with us. After supper we went up to my room for some more alone time. We hopped in my bed and cuddled and kissed again. We fell asleep in each others arms and we didn't wake up until my mom came up to my room.

She said, "Hey, do you two plan on spending the night together? It's okay with me, but Jeff, you better call your parents and ask them."

He was about to pick up the phone on my night stand when he saw the time. It was 11:30PM and he knew his parents would be in bed already. But he tried to call home and got no answer.

Jeff said, "I'll call them back up in the morning and hope I don't get in trouble." My mom agreed with him. Mom said,

"Let me talk to your mom and see if I can help you out?" He thanked her.

I thought, Oh my god! We've just met today and mom is allowing him to spend the night with me.

"You know, I think my mom really likes you."

Jeff said, "Why do you think that?"

"Think about it, how many parents would let a boy spend the night with their daughter on the first date." He agreed and we were still in each other arms and kissed each other gently and went back to sleep again.

Chapter 3 – Sunday Before

Part 1 - Jeff

I woke up in the morning to the ringing of the phone. Her mom yelled, " Jeff it's your mom on the phone and she wants to talk to you." "Hi mom, Kris and I were cuddling in her room and we fell asleep again, her mom woke us up at 11:30PM. She told me to call you and tell you I was spending the night here. I knew you were probably in bed, so I planned on calling you this morning."

His mom said, "I know Kris's mom told me about it. When you didn't come home, dad and I figured you had stayed there. I called because I need directions to her house. We'll be over around 10:00AM. I'm so happy you found a nice and caring girl like her. Parents are nice, too. She told me, that she trusts you around her daughter, that's why she let you stay with her, but I don't want this to be a regular thing."

"I have no problem with that, can she spend some nights at our house too?"

We already know that it is Jeff's mom said, "Since her parents thinks it's alright for you to sleep with her at her house, yes she can. We'll see you in a little while."

Kris with a mischievous smile asked, "Would you like to join me for a shower this morning?" Instead of answering I jumped out of bed and grabbed her by the waist and pulled her out of bed. She tried yelling to her mom, but was laughing too hard. Finally, she caught her breath enough as we ran to the bathroom and yelled over the banister,

"Mom, Jeff and I are taking a shower together before we come downstairs."

Mom said, "Okay, Kris, I won't let any one bother you too much."

I started laughing at her mom's reply. I thought to myself, this is one cool family.

Kris said, "Our family has a very open relationship, In fact, when I told my family about being in the program, they stripped to encourage me. I was the one needing encouragement. We tell them what we're doing and as long as it isn't dangerous, they usually say "Have fun." We will have to get used to it, too." I agreed and we hopped in the shower. I grabbed her shampoo it smelled like roses and started washing her sexy blond hair. After rinsing it and caressing her neck and shoulders, I then worked in the conditioner that she handed me it to smelled like flowers in Spring. She told me that the conditioner took a few minutes to work, so I turned her around to face me, took her soap and started lathering my way down her body. I asked her if she used a washcloth. She said sometimes, but today she wanted my hands on her body. I took my time washing her shoulders, neck and arms working my way back to her shoulders and down to her breasts. I teased all around them by drawing figure eights. While I was occupied with her breasts, she started rubbing her stomach against mine in an up and down, side to side motion.

Occasionally, her pubic hair would graze against my cock, making it feel harder then I have ever known it to be. By the time I got around to her nipples she was moving her pussy up and down along my cock. I took my time washing them. They were delightful; a little bigger around than my hand, and soft. So soft and delicate looking, I was afraid that my finger prints would scrape the skin right off them. I tried to be gentle, but she started pressing them into my hands. She pressed so hard and sudden that I almost lost my balance and had to take a step back. When she lost contact with my dick, she moaned and reached around to grab my ass and pull me back to her. My dick was still at attention and she re-trapped it between us. She then started grinding again. That was all it took. I know she felt my dick pulsing and then I felt the hot cum on my stomach. We looked each other in the eyes, then slowly, I bent my head down and she looked up, and we kissed. It started as a gentle kiss and grew more passionate as we lingered. I hoped that it could go on forever. We were startled by a knock on the door and we jumped apart, and almost fell down. "Ten minute warning." A voice called through the door.

"Make it twenty, no, thirty" she yelled back.

"You've got fifteen" was the reply.

We sighed, and I got busy with the soap. When I got down to her pussy, I looked up and she shook her head to go ahead and wash that, too, but there wasn't much time, so I told her that next time I would work a little faster. She pouted a little, but agreed. I proceeded to wash her legs and feet. When she was all soaped up, she turned around and I washed her back side, too. What a backside it was; tight and firm, but soft too. I wanted to stay there for a year, but I couldn't; at least not today. She backed into the water, turned around and rinsed the soap and cum off.

Part 2 – Kris

I took my time washing Jeff; starting with his hair too. Now he smelled like roses as well. I rinsed his hair, he didn't want the conditioner. He took the soap from the soap dish and handed it to me. I took it, turned him around and started with his arms. He held out both hands, and I washed each finger, going back and forth as if I was masturbating them. I tried to do to him what he did to me; soaping his breasts and making figure eights. I never realized that men's nipples would stiffen like women's do. It made my pussy tingle to know that I was exciting him. I was thrilled with the way he washed my tits and made me feel so . . . so . . . so wanton. He can do figure eights any time he wants. It doesn't even have to be in the shower.

I didn't realize that I had been rubbing against his cock until he spurted his cum. It felt hot, and wicked. I know I came too. It was small, but it was better than any orgasm I've had by myself.

After taking too much time with his chest, I traced my way down to his cock. I had only seen my brother's cock before when I helped mom change his diaper. But I was not as interested in cocks then as I am now, especially this one. I knew that there wasn't much time left, I sort of rushed the rest of the wash. I was on my knees while I washed his cock and legs and when I finished with them, I looked up at his face, smiled and planted a great big kiss on the end of his cock. Well, that certainly had an effect on him.

Unfortunately, we could not take proper advantage of that effect, so we reluctantly agreed next time, turned off the water, got out of the shower and dried each other off. The towel felt rough over my sensitive nipples as Jeff tried to gently dry me off. We kissed again. Gosh, I could get use to this. Since this was a 'nude at home' weekend, we went downstairs for breakfast. When we got downstairs, mom saw the gleam in our eyes and the flush on our bodies. I couldn't read her face, but she didn't look too pleased with us. Wow! I thought we were in trouble.

Then Mom quirked her lips and said, "I sure hope you two enjoyed your time in the shower." I was very relieved that she wasn't mad at us. "Kris I'd like you help me make some of the fixings for the food?" I gave Jeff a squeeze and went over to help her.

Jeff said, "Can I help too since I'm here and don't mind helping either?"

Mom said, "this time you can watch, but, later on I'll take you up on that offer.' She turned to me and said in a stage whisper "Kris you sure got a winner here, you had better keep him around for as long as you can."

I stage whispered back, "I intend to, for as long as I can.

Jeff walked over and gave mom and big hug. He said, "Thank you for letting me stay last night and there isn't a better girl around anywhere."

He pulled me over and we had a nice 3-way hug. The hug had an effect on all of us. Mom and I got stiff nipples, and Jeff started to get an erection from all the skin contact. He didn't seem too embarrassed, at least I couldn't tell because he was still flushed from the shower. He said, "When, you get done helping, I've got more hugs for you." He walked outside, saw Steph in the pool, jumped in and started throwing her around. There was a great deal of screaming and splashing going on. They were having a fantastic time and I wanted to join them. But I was content to just watch them from the kitchen window.

Mom said, "You'd better be careful your sister might try to steal him away."

I started to laugh then said, "You know mom, Steph is one lucky sister, she gets to play with my partner while I'm in here helping you. You know there is not another girl around that I'd trust him with. She's one special sister and I love her so much."

Mom said, "I didn't know you cared about her that much, when did that start to happen?"

"I've always cared about her. It's just that now, since Jeff came into my life and likes me for being me and not Ms. Popular Good Student, I have learned to express that care, but don't tell that to the little brat." I reached over and kissed her, and started to cry. She held me tight until the doorbell rang. We separated so Mom could answer the door. I went out to the pool to let Jeff know that his parents were here. He got out and started drying off. I helped, of course.

Mom opened the door and said, "Welcome to the Thompson house; I'm Kim and I'll introduce you to all the others here after you guys come on in."

Jeff and I were done drying him, and walked back in to greet his parents. It was then that I realized that mom is standing in the open doorway and all the neighbors could look in and see that she was nude. Jeff's family didn't seem to mind, but I remembered that they too didn't like clothes too much either. My mom said, "You know Kris and Jeff, the rest are out by the pool. Kris will show you where to change if you wish. There are hangers for your clothes there. They all followed me in the den even his mom. Kris added, "When you get done I'll take you out to the pool to introduce you to the rest of my family.

They all came out dressed as we were. I was surprised. I expected the kids, but, not his parents too! I have to admit that I looked his dad over. He wasn't too fat, but I could see a belly. I quickly looked down below his waist and saw a smallish penis with a lot of pubic hair. His balls seemed big, but what did I know about them? As I was looking at it, his cock started to inflate and rise. I was mesmerized by the action. Mom cleared her throat loudly, and it made me jump and break contact with it. I blushed. His parents chuckled a little bit. After a moment, we all went outside and made the introductions to the rest of my family. Jeff's brother and sisters didn't wait for us, and made a mad dash into the pool. Jeff and I walked to the edge of the pool and holding hands, jumped in. The grownups came in at a more sedate pace. Sandy yelled to everyone "Let's play chicken, the first girl down sits out the next game and the other one gets to play."

Steph surprised us when she said, "I'll sit this one out" Kevin swam over to Sandy, turned around so Sandy could climb on his shoulders. Kevin was in waist deep water and as he walked into the shallow area, I could see that he was very happy to have a nude girl on his shoulders. Sandy seemed pretty happy to be there too. She kept wiggling, seemingly to get a more comfortable position, but since I was in a similar position on Jeff, I knew better. My nipples stiffened and poked out. God, I was getting turned on by rubbing my pussy against Jeff's neck. I couldn't see Jeff's cock, but I guessed that it was as hard as Kevin's. That left Jimmy and Suzy together. They were in a similar situation. Nobody seemed embarrassed by all the wiggling or erections. Once we were settled on our perches, we all looked at each other. One of the parents, I think it was Dad yelled from his lounge "Let the games begin." Kevin with Sandy and Jimmy with Suzy started moving towards Jeff and me. Those sneaks! They double teamed us! Sandy grabbed one arm and Susan the other. Then they directed their steeds to walk backwards and pulled me off Jeff. I went down quickly from the onslaught, then Sandy managed to unseat Suzy. We kept playing for a while. We even managed to win a few bouts. Jeff and I got out and lay down on our towels on the grass, in the sun. We talked quietly about how it would look in school with no tan lines. Mom called out to us to put suntan lotion on or we would look more like lobsters than people next week.

Jeff got up and took the lotion from mom and came back to apply it to my back. It was the shower all over again. He put some lotion in his hand and rubbed them together to warm it up. While he did that, I had gathered up my hair and got it off to the side of my head. Then he started with my neck. He massaged the lotion every where he could reach; gently caressing my neck, shoulders, sides, even the bulges that my flattened breasts made as I lay on my stomach. I was melting under his touch. Suddenly something very cold went down my spine. I yelped and arched my back in shock. A moment later, after I rolled onto my back and sat up as fast as I could, I saw Jeff laughing his head off. All the action and conversation around the pool ceased. I stood up and approached him. My eyes were throwing daggers at him and my face had the look of anger no one ever wants to see on another person. I held up my hands, with my fingers in 'clawing' position. I was furious! I advanced on Jeff. With each step I took towards him, he took a step back. He backed onto the pool deck and kept backing; step by step, inch by inch, I worked my closer. He backed another step and fell into the pool. He came up sputtering and laughing. Everyone else was laughing as well. I had a look of triumph on my face. "Even?" he asked. "Well, I'll think about it." He climbed out, and I dried him off. Then we went back to working on our tans. He finished applying the lotion on my back, then had me turn over. I thought the soap routine was fun. This beat it by at least a hundred percent! He caressed the lotion into my breasts and my nipples popped. He brushed his hands over them and then rotated his palms right on the points. Wheee! That set me off and I had an orgasm. He hadn't even touched my pussy!

Once I started breathing again, I told him that it was my turn. He winced a little, probably thinking I was going to 'pay him back'. Well, I was thinking about it, but I will just let him stew a bit. He lay face down on his towel and I squirted the lotion onto my hand and warmed it up. I looked at his back and saw his shoulder blades and the muscles around them tense in anticipation of the cold lotion. I said nothing; just started very lightly with my finger tips. I saw the muscles ripple in reaction. Then I put my whole lotion covered hands right on his shoulders and started rubbing it in. His back wasn't very hairy yet, so his skin was very smooth. I was getting excited just applying the lotion. I worked my way down to his butt, relotioning my hands every so often and he would tense when I picked up the bottle. When I finished his legs, he rolled onto his back. There in the middle of his body was a flag pole. I wanted to jump right on, but the thought of our parents and sibs there kept me off him. I lotioned him from his feet to his waist, lingering at and lotioning his cock and balls. After all, I wouldn't want them to get sun burned before they could get friction burns would I? Instead, I jerked him slowly. He started humping my hand, trying to cum. I opened my hand and released him. He groaned a bit, so I leaned over and kissed him on the lips. He grabbed me and pulled me down on top of him and held me tight. We kissed some more. Then we were noticed by the kids and they started singing "Kris and Jeff sitting in a tree K I S S I N G. First comes love, then comes marriage, then comes baby in a baby carriage." We broke apart and blushed because we were caught. The grown-ups just laughed and resumed talking to each other. We lay on our backs, side by side, holding hands and let the sun bake us to a golden brown. The kids resumed playing in the pool. As we were dozing, I vaguely heard "Marco" and several replies "Polo" from the pool and knew that the kids were having fun.

I leaned close and whispered, "Jeff, do you want to come up to my room again?" He stood up and reached out and grabbed my hand, pulled me up and took me inside. On the way up to my room, I said, "You know we are going to get felt up this week and no one has ever touched me before you did today. Would you like to continue where we left off in the shower? You will be the first guy to show me what it feels like?"

He replied, "I would be honored to be your first, as long as you will be my first too." I answered him with a kiss that curled my toes. I think my nipples twitched a little as well.

"I think we should shower all the suntan lotion off first so we don't slide off the bed."

He remarked. "What? You mean you don't want to wrestle with a grease ball?" was my rejoinder.

"Nope, I do want to wrestle with you, but not all greasy, at least not today, as much fun as that might be"

So, once again we took a shower. We agreed that we would save the fooling around for the bedroom and just did a quick wash and dry, well, OK a not so quick wash, but we did dry off pretty quick.

As we were walking back to my room, we heard the kids downstairs in the living room, but paid no attention to them. Once in my room, I closed the door and turned to Jeff. I am about three inches shorter than he is, so I didn't have to tilt my head very far for our mouths to meet. We kissed. It started slow and gentle and stayed that way for a few moments of eternity. My arms, which were under his arms, with my hands on his back, started stroking and sliding up and down his spine without my knowledge. His arms were over my shoulders with his hands on my back were doing the same. I wasn't tingling at all. I was so far beyond tingle that I wondered if the earthquake sensors were being rattled. Our kiss intensified and somehow, I found my tongue caressing his lips. They weren't soft and puffy, but firm, and gentle. They were short strokes, back and forth. He got the message, and parted his lips and slid his tongue under mine and stroked my lower lip. All this time, we were rubbing our bodies together. My nipples stiff and pointed were rubbing just under the swell of his breasts, my stomach at his lower stomach, his cock at my lower stomach and my pussy just hanging there waiting to be touched by something. He must have sensed my pussy nearby and moved his right leg between my legs and pressed it firmly against me. We both moaned at the contact. Each point felt hotter than I have ever been. If this is what love is all about, I want more!

I felt down to his butt and found the firm muscles of an athlete. I caressed him and felt along his crack, then tried to dip lower between his legs to try to feel his balls. I couldn't. DAMN! So I pulled continued stroking all the parts I could reach. After several minutes, I pulled my arms out from under his, and started backing away from his embrace. I wanted to explore this new person in my life. "Jeff, I have not been around naked men and you are the first one, other than my dad, but I can't ask him for this: I would like to explore your body and learn what you like and how you feel then you can explore me the same way."

"OK, how do you wish to do this?" he asked.

"Well, lay on the bed on your back, since the front is more interesting I will start there" He acquiesced and I knelt on the bed near his head and examined his face. He started turning a little red under my intense gaze. He also started to tremble slightly. I pulled my eyes back as he spoke. "I never realized what it felt like to be under a microscope. You made me feel like a piece of meat that you were looking to buy. I am going to have a hard time in Bio Lab when we get to studying bugs." I chuckled as did he, then resumed my inspection of his body. His face was mostly smooth, with a little bit of acne on his forehead and nose. He had no darkening hair on his face, so I knew he didn't need to shave yet. His eyes were a beautiful shade of pool water blue, and I almost felt like going swimming in them. I started giggling as I imagined a small diving board across the bridge of his nose, so I could dive into his soul. He refocused his eyes on me and I could sense the question he wanted to ask, so I told him. He started to giggle too. Then he said "Sprooinggg, splash, paddle, paddle, paddle." We both lost it and laughed for several minutes. "Kris, Jeff, foods on!" came through the door.

"What? How long were we in here?" Jeff asked. I looked at the clock on my night stand and saw that is was almost six and time for dinner.

"We've been here about three hours, and I have not yet begun to inspect!" I told him. "I will have to take a 'dinner check' and come back and take up where we left off." We got off the bed, and went down for dinner

Our dads had just taken the food off the grill and yelled, "Food's ready!" They set it on the table; we all sat down and ate. Mom and Maggie had all the other stuff out. I asked Jeff what he wanted to drink with dinner and he just asked for water. I had a Pepsi.

I thought I noticed Kevin was still with Sandy. Oh my god, my brother likes Jeff's sister. Steph, Jimmy and Suzy were talking on the other side the pool. I said, "Mom, it looks like rest of the kids like each other, too." She smiled and said "nice people attract nice people. I am glad they like each other. They came to the table and looked like prunes. It turned out that they had been in the pool all afternoon.

I think I ate, but I am really not sure. I couldn't take my eyes off Jeff and paid little to no attention to what I was doing. I liked watching everything he did, from the way he held the knife to put the Mayo on the hamburger roll, to the way he licked his lips. Oh those lips! I can still taste them. I leaned into him and pursed my lips for a kiss, and I tasted those lips again. The grownups chuckled, and the kids laughed at us and they made gagging noises, as little kids do when they see people smooching. I discovered something then. It is hard to kiss when I am smiling and laughing. I broke away and laughed out loud. Everyone looked at me with questions in their eyes. I said, "It wasn't so long ago, I would have been making the same remarks as the kids. In fact, it would have been just last week."

We finished dinner and mom shooed Jeff and me back upstairs. Before we got there, Jeff asked if he could take some of his turn now. I thought a moment and said "sure". Jeff started kissing me, but didn't linger on my mouth. He kissed around my face, and down the side of my face and neck. They were quick pecks, as if he were in a hurry to get someplace, but didn't want to neglect the path he was taking to get there. He reached the swell of my left breast and kissed around it in a spiral leading to the peak of Mt. Titarest. Only here it was too hot for snow. He licked, kissed and teased my nipple with his tongue, then caught it between his lips and moved them in opposite directions; the effect was that he twisted my nipple slightly. The sensation went right to my pussy. His hands were not idle while his mouth was in motion. His left hand was stroking up and down my stomach with just enough pressure to not tickle. As his lips continued playing with my tit, his hand wandered down into my pubic bush. He lightly twirled a finger in the hair, sending more vibes to my pussy. He abandoned my breast, leaving the other one out in the cold and resumed kissing his way down to my belly button. I have a deep innie, if it matters. Then he struck the forest. I have a fairly dense bush above my mons, but not much elsewhere. He wiggled his nose through it, as if he were following a wandering trail, still kissing as he traveled. EUREKA!!! He found the gold mine!!! I orgasmed the instant his lips brushed across my clit. I shook and thrashed as I came. I think I scared him a little, but when he realized what it was, he went back to play. He proceeded to tongue my clit and the surrounding area with gentle swipes. My pussy lips must have been open wide since I felt him stick his tongue in and his hand was now stroking my breast. "Please....Get....between.... my.... legs.... andcontinue" I urged him between ragged breaths.

He complied instantly, but instead of restarting with his tongue, he just lay down facing my twat, and stared at it intently. He took his fingers and spread my lips more and poked around.

Eventually, he found my clit again. "What are you doing down there?" I asked, frustrated that he wasn't continuing.

"I have never looked at a girl this closely before, and "I just wanted to see what I was getting myself into." He replied with a grin.

"OK, turn around so I can see what's getting into me." I rejoined. He turned around and we both turned onto our sides and raised our 'up' leg, bent it at the knee and put our foot flat on the bed so we could explore the 'naughty bits'. We were looking, exploring, touching and just acquainting ourselves with the opposite sex for some time, when we heard a thump on the door. "Who's there?" I called. It was my dad letting us know that it was time for Jeff to go, and for me to go to bed.

We came downstairs, both of us sweaty and flushed.

"Mom, now I know what it's going to be like to be felt up in the hallways at school. Jeff and I just groped each other!

His mom said, "Oh my god, she even tells you things like that."

Mom said, "We have a very open relationship. If you trust your kids then they trust you in return. In fact, I expect to hear all about her 'first time' in great detail, when it happens. That reminds me, Honey, go to the school nurse, first thing and get the shot so you will be protected."

"Ok, mom. I had planned on doing that as soon as I could."

"Oh I have to change my sheets before I go to sleep tonight. While we were fooling around we both came and we made a mess all over the bed."

Mom said, "Kris! You don't have to be so descriptive though. That's just too much information" We all laughed.

Then mom told me to turn my back to her. She started poking and prodding it. "Mom, what are you doing?" I asked with some indignation.

"I'm looking for your shell. It was here just three days ago. What did you do with it?"

"My shell? Jeff took it off and put it in my closet last night. If you want, we can donate it to the Salvation Army or Good Will the next time they come around." I replied offhandedly. Everyone had a good chuckle at my humor, and mom hugged me.

Maggie said, "I see why my son had a crush on her and I think that Kris put his shell in there too. I'm sure happy he's out of his shell now."

Jeff asked his mom, "Would you mind, if I used the van in the morning I was thinking about taking all the kids here to and from school?"

His dad said, "That sounds like a real good idea." My mom thanked him, now she didn't have to take us to school on the way to work.

Jeff's dad said, "I think it's time for us to get dressed and go home, since you guys have school tomorrow and probably homework to finish."

The grownups were bemused at the confused looks the kids gave them. It appeared that they were ready to go to the car just as they were. They made their way to their clothes and dressed. We all stood in the doorway and talked about the day, and what a great time we all had. Yeah, I had a really great time! Then five of them left, but Jeff stayed for a moment longer, since he had his own car here.

I asked Steph what she and the others did all after supper. "We played Monopoly, since we all liked it. But we didn't want to play the long version, so the banker shuffled and dealt out the properties. The extra ones were put in the bank for sale." When we got bored with that, we went back in the pool. She looked thoughtful for a moment and in a loud voice said "You know, for a new bunch of friends, we all got along great!"

We all agreed with that sentiment, and on that happy note, Jeff's family went home. We cleaned up the house and turned in.

Part 3 – Jeff

Wow! Talk about trust. Her mom sent us to her room! Alone! Only two naked, horny teenagers with pheromones just dripping from our pores, and she leaves us alone.

My reactions and impressions that Kris described were very accurate, and there is little that I can add about the day.

Steph said something interesting before we left. "You know, with all us kids doing this now, it won't be as bad on us, when, we get picked to do it in high school." We all agreed.

Kris said, "It's not as bad as I thought it was going to be; plus I hooked up with the sweetest guy around here and if I had not volunteered to do it I'd never know that he had a crush on me." She leaned over and kissed me.

Kris asked, "What are you wearing tomorrow?"

"I really haven't made my mind up, but, I really don't care, because as soon as I get to school it's coming off."

She said, "I'm thinking about wearing sweats for that reason because they come off, so easy." I agreed then she walked him to the door and we kissed.

"I'll pick you guys up around 7:45 in the tomorrow." I looked Kris in the eyes and told her, "I'll miss you until then." I left and headed home, when I got home I told my brother and sisters what time we were leaving, then went to my room to do my homework.

Fortunately, it was easy, and I didn't have to think much. All my thoughts were of Kris and the wonderful weekend we just had. It felt like there was a part of my heart missing, and it ached to be with Kris. I wondered if I was in love after only two days, or was this just lust for a beautiful girl. I took my third shower of the day thinking of Kris. That led to an erection, which led to my stroking it pretending that Kris was here with me. I came quickly and was finally able to relax enough to feel tired. After drying off and brushing up, I went to bed. Even with the cum, my body was ready to sleep, but my mind was still with Kris I had trouble getting to sleep. In one night, I got very use to sleeping with another person in my bed. I finally lapsed into unconsciousness and had some wonderful dreams of Kris and me.

Chapter 4 - Monday

Part 1 - Jeff

My alarm has this annoying habit of waking me up. Usually I am right in the middle of a dream. This time it wasn't just any dream. Kris was the cookie that I was eating. I jerked awake and found the corner of my pillow case in my mouth. Well, she was a marshmallow cookie after all. All soft and fluffy and well, you know. I rolled out of bed and wandered down the hall, in just my skin, to our shared bathroom. I got there first today, so I could take a little more time than usual, and let the kids complain instead of me. I had a morning hard on and it didn't seem to want to let anything out at the moment, even though my bladder was screaming for relief. I needed something to distract my cock, so I started thinking. Yeah, that's right, thinking. I figured that if I don't have enough blood for both heads, all the blood goes to the lower one overnight because the upper one is shut down and not thinking. I mean it's obvious, if you just think about it. Well, I started thinking, and guess what, I thought about Kris. That was no help, but I couldn't stop. My little head got some more blood. I just had to do something. I brushed my teeth and took my shower, and dried off. I also tried to pee in the shower. That worked, though I couldn't aim, but I really didn't need to. I finished and turned off the water, got out and dried off. As I picked up my comb, I looked in the mirror over the sink and saw a glow about my face that I had never noticed before. I figured that Kris put it there when we took off my shell Saturday night. I combed my hair and applied my Ban Roll on. Opening the door, I found Sandy with her hand raised to knock. She too was naked.

She grinned and said, "Hi, bro. Have a good sleep?"

"Oh yeah! How was yours?"

"Not as good as yours was. Did you know you talk in your sleep?" She said with a big smirk on her face. We had adjoining walls, but I didn't know they were thin.

"No Way!"

She added, "Yes way. I couldn't hear all you were saying, but Kris' name came up quite often and quite clear."

"Well, you know I care for her and I hope she cares for me. I am going to ask her if she'll be my girlfriend. Don't you dare say anything to her about it until after I ask her, alright?"

She agreed and said, "Wow, are you in love, or something?" she asked, slightly awed by my confession."

"It's not love the same way I feel about you, I love you very much, but, I think this is romantic love. Since I have never felt this way before about anyone, I don't really know. So, will you keep quiet, please?"

"Oh, all right." She agreed with imperfect grace. "Boy, you never let me have no fun." She mock fumed, but then started smiling and ruined the effect. As I walked away, I could hear her start humming the taunt the kids sang yesterday. I filled in the words myself and smiled because they didn't seem like a taunt anymore. In fact, if I could find a tree that Kris and I could climb, it might be fun to make those words the truth, well, except for the baby carriage part, at least until we graduated from college anyway.

This exchange didn't take very long, and it was fun to talk to my sister this way. It reminded me that she was growing up and would be thinking about things like this soon. I want to have more talks like this with her. I dressed in sweats, as Kris and I agreed last night and put on a pair of sandals without socks, since I didn't think I would look too cool wearing socks and shoes with the outfit I was going to wear in school. After I dressed, I got my backpack together with the books and homework that I would need for today, and went down to breakfast. Both kids were there and eating their cereal. We usually have General Mills cereals because they have the 'box tops for education' that we cut out and send to the middle school PTA so they can get more money for the school. I mentioned to my brother and sisters that we'll be leaving in 20 minutes and helped myself to some OJ and cereal.

We all finished together, and put our dishes in the dishwasher. It was full, so I put the soap in and started it

As we went to the car, I told Sandy, Suzy and Jimmy to get in the way back of the van. Surprisingly enough, they did. I was shocked that there were no complaints. Apart from the anticipation of seeing Kris again, the drive to her house was uneventful. After all, we live very close to each other. They were waiting for us outside. Kris looked absolutely radiant and I told her so.

That's when the kids perked their ears and started whispering and giggling. I started singing the taunt very softly, and Kris started in with me. Then we all broke into full laughter. I had her get in front with me, naturally, and Steph and Kevin got in the middle row. I made sure that everyone was buckled in and we took off for school.

I told everyone that we would leave from here after the meet. Kris and I got out, as did the kids. They went to the middle school that was an attached wing on our school on the other side of the Gym building.

We walked hand in hand into the school and headed straight into the office to see Mrs. McDonald so I could hand her the note from my parents. I gave her the note from my parents, she handed us the pamphlet about the program and without being asked we started undress.

She said, "Thank you both for being in the program this week, let's make it better than it ever has been here before." I agreed with her.

"I know it's going to be better than before because I have found Kris, the girl I cared about since the 7th grade. Now she's with me, how could it be any better?"

Kris said, "I found a sweet, caring guy that wants to be with me for the right reasons." Kris and I walked out of the office and headed to our first period. Did we ever get some funny looks!

A shy freshman boy came up to Kris and told her she looked beautiful and could he feel her breasts. Kris said sure and told him to be gentle because that felt good for her. A girl came up and asked me if she could feel my cock and balls because she never seen a boy naked before. She was surprised as my cock started to swell when her soft hand started rubbing it. I told her it was because she was making me feel good. She felt my ball sack and gave a little squeeze. "Be careful there" I gasped "Testicles are very sensitive and need to be treated gently" The girl, Alice, said sorry and was gentle from then on. Some other kids came up and asked if they could touch us too. As they asked nicely, we both let them touch us. They all said thank you and went away with big smiles and flushed faces. The boy's pants were tenting in the front and I expect there were some damp panties amongst the girls too. As nice as it was, we had to get to class. Kris and I went hand in hand off to our classroom. Little Jeff led the way, I was rock hard and my balls felt so full. Kris was as turned on as I was.

Part 2 - Kris

We got to our 1st period English class and took our seats. We both had towels to put on the seats. Miss Thomas asked, "Jeff, do you need relief?"

He said, "I think I do need it by the looks of things here." He got up and walked to the front of classroom and sat on a chair facing the class.

Miss Thomas asked, "Do we have any students here who are willing to help Jeff with relief?" I looked around and just about every girl had her hand up, one of them was mine, there was even one guy!

To no surprise he picked me, I walked up, got down on my knees and started stroking his cock. I gave him a lust-filled look and got to the task in hand. There was some pre cum oozing out of the eye of his cock and I rubbed it over his purple colored knob. Jeff moaned as I stroked him down from his knob to the base of his shaft and back up again. I loved it and I could see and feel that Jeff did too. I stroked faster and faster. Jeff was thrusting his ass off the chair, his face red and tensed up. He started yelling, "OH MY GOD!! I'M CUMMMMMING, I'M CUMMMMMING!! A rope of thick white cum shot out of his cock and splattered on my left tit. I could feel his cock pulsing as it spurted again and again. My tits and belly were dripping with Jeff's cum. He smiled at me, I was so turned on, my pussy was so wet! Miss Thomas brought us over some tissues to help clean up the mess we made. I had to help Jeff back to his seat because his legs were so weak. The rest of class was normal, I really wasn't aware that I was sitting there stark naked. I was more than aware that I was next to this hunky, naked guy who made me feel so special.

After class, one of my best friends, Shirley Smith asked, "How did you get talked into doing the program?"

I told her the story then added, "I'm sure happy about it too, because that jerk John broke up with me. I didn't realize what a loser he was. Now I have found Jeff here and he's a true sweetheart. We have a Cross Country Meet here tonight, are you coming to see it?"

She said, "I'll be there right after cheerleading practice." We all walked to gym together, Shirley walked in to change and Jeff went in with her. I had to go in the boy's shower room. During this coming summer, they plan on making our shower room a unisex one, the middle school has their own entrance to the gym on the other side. They use it during first, third and fifth periods and we use it the rest of the day. Today we played volleyball, do you know how hard is to hit the ball right with your tits getting in the way and all the boys looking at them also. I was happy when gym was over but the shower was so much more fun. I got washed by four guys, they were feeling me up while they were washing me. I must have had the cleanest tits and pussy in the world! The teacher had to stop their Kris cleaning activities so they could get themselves cleaned up and not be late for next class. My dressing was quick to do, just dry off and put my shoes and socks on.

Part 3 – Jeff

My shower after gym was something most guys wouldn't expect in their hottest dream. I lost track of how many girls were washing me and they made me cum, too. I met Kris in the hallway and we headed to our third period, which was the only class we didn't have together. Luckily, our classes were across the hall from each other. Kris had sewing and I had drafting. I dropped her off at the door and then walked across the hall to my class. After drafting I met her in the hall and headed to lunch. John Jacobs came up to Kris and asked, "Would you like to go out after your meet tonight and get something to eat?"

Kris said, "I'm sorry John, but I'd rather spend some time with Jeff. He and I have more things in common." I was blushing when I heard her say that. To make her meaning totally clear, she leaned over and kissed me on the cheek. John walked away, pissed. She added, "I think he got what he deserved too." After class she told me that she was supposed to be making an outfit to go to the carnival this weekend. Not much use for that because she and I knew we both had to go there naked. We headed to lunch and started talking. I had liked this girl from afar for years but now that we were spending time together, I was having feelings that I had never felt before. She was so pretty and had a very sexy body but that was nothing compared to the way she looked at me. It felt natural to have her with me and the shyness I felt with other girls was not there. She made me feel on top of the world and I missed her when we were apart. A week ago I was too shy to even talk to her but now I knew that I should be honest with her and trust her with what I was feeling.

I reached out took both of her hands in mine and looked at her pretty face. "Kris, it feels so good being around you, may I ask you to be my girlfriend?"

Kris said, "Yes, I'd love to be your girlfriend, I've had feelings for you since we slept together Saturday night." I leaned in and kissed her. She settled into my arms like she was made to be there. She returned my kiss and melted into me. My heart was bursting with happiness. We held hands as we walked to get lunch. Well it was more like we floated to lunch about two feet off the ground.

Shirley said, "I didn't know students in the program had to hold hands?"

"Kris is now my girlfriend and I'm the happiest guy in the school."

She said, "I'm so happy for you both. By the way, is that why I saw John walking away pissed?" We all laughed.

Kris said, "He got what he deserves too, for breaking up with me just because I'm willing to do the program."

"You're completely right about that and you have a lot nicer boy here." Shirley pulled us into a three way hug. Kris was so happy her best friend approved of me and was delighted when I gave my approval of Shirley by kissing her on the cheek. We headed for art class with me in the middle holding hands with two beautiful girls and a shit eating grin on my face.

Part 4 - Kris

Jeff and I were surprised when Mrs. Jones asked us, "Would you two like to model for the class this week, since you're in the program?"

Jeff and I talked it over and we agreed it was okay to model. "We'll be doing solo poses today, Kris will you go first." She smiled at me and first had me pose on the couch in a pretty standard prone position. I was lying on my left side, legs together. My head was raised, resting on my left hand propped up with my left elbow. My right arm was on my right side with my hand resting on my hip. Mrs. Jones told me to look at the class and smile. I held that pose for a while as pencils sketched on paper.

Next, she maneuvered me to a ladder she had in the room. I was standing up for this one leaning back against the ladder. She had me facing the class, my left leg was on the ground, my right one bent with my foot on the bottom rung. She had me reach slightly behind me and grip the ladder with both hands.

"I was noticing that pose makes your lovely boobs look bigger." Jeff yelled out, getting a giggle from the class. Well, most of it, Mrs. Jones had a grin and I had a blush! It was an all over body blush too, I was so happy that my boyfriend was complimenting me in front of the whole class. "Jeff will be getting very lucky soon" I thought, "perhaps tomorrow will be his day" After class I had to leave and go to the junior high wing to help Miss Stevens.

She asked, "Would you mind helping me teach my health class with you as a model? It would make it a lot easier for the kids to learn from a living person, than out of a book."

I said, "Seeing I'm here, I might as well be a model here, too." Then I explained to her what happened last period.

Steph asked, "Miss Stevens, since my sister is here naked, can I get naked, too?"

Miss Stevens said, "I need to get the okay for that from the principal. I will find out and let you know tomorrow."

Miss Stevens said, "If I get the okay, anyone who wants to be naked in health class can do so but you need to bring a note from home. Now let's start health class, Kris is going to be a model for us, please thank her." They all clapped to thank me and Miss Stevens showed them different body parts and explained their function. When class was over, I relaxed with her and we graded papers.

She asked, "Who is your partner this week?"

"Jeff James is my partner and we have a cross country meet after school tonight. I am so happy about it because he makes me feel safe and is such a nice guy. Just between you and me, he asked me to be his girlfriend at lunch and I said yes"

"Oh Kris, that is why you are glowing today. I have had Jeff in some of my classes when he was in middle school. He is a nice young man and a good student. I was thinking of him when you asked me who should be your partner."

"I wonder how many notes you'll have from the parents tomorrow?"

She said, "Let's find out, this my free period so why don't we go down and talk to the principal about it."

I thought to myself "Oh my god, what have I started here." We walked down and went into Mr. Harris's office. Miss Stevens said, "I have struck a problem with Kris being naked in my fifth period Health class. Some of my health class wants to try being naked during health period. Is there a problem with that?"

Mr. Harris said, "I've got no problem with it, the board is talking about starting The Program in the junior high next semester anyway. Any student who wants to be naked will need written permission from their parents. If they bring a note then there will be no problem." She thanked him and we went back to her room to grade some more papers.

Miss Stevens asked, "Who's your Cross Country meet against tonight?"

I said, "Ft. Summer, the school where the program first started in our area. The girl who won the race at the Invitational on the weekend ran naked, now I will be too. The meet is at 4:00PM. Would you like to come and support Jeff, me and the rest of the team."

Miss Stevens said, "That sounds like fun, I would love to. I have no other plans today. I will make you a deal, if half my class gets naked tomorrow, I'll get naked as well."

I said, "I'll remind you of that, too." We both laughed. Then the bell rang and I headed back to my wing of the school to get ready for the meet. I saw Jeff and asked him, "Since we have to be naked during the race, I'm taking my shoes and socks off, too. You want to join me?"

He said, "I don't know if that is such a good idea, you might tread on something sharp on the course and hurt your feet. How about we take our shoes off after the race?" He was so smart, I was having so much fun getting to know him and this was just the 1st day. About 3:20PM, the team headed outside to warm up. I spotted my mom so I went over and told her about what happened in Miss Stevens' health class. I excitedly spit out the BIG news that Jeff was my boyfriend. She was so happy and I saw the gleam on her face.

We went to warm up for the meet, the girls event was on first. After my race I would find mom to watch Jeff and the boys run.

I saw Miss Stevens walking over to the race area, she gave me a wave. Then I noticed her tits bouncing more than usual. "Hmmmm, looks like she is getting ready for tomorrow, lots of laughs" I thought. I saw that my brother, sister and Jeff's sister were there too. I didn't see Jeff's parents but when I looked that way again, my sister and brother were stripping their clothes off. I thought "Oh my god, it's not even Tuesday and they are already naked at the school."

The gun fired to start the girl's race. I felt good and went out with the leaders again. I normally run about 5th place on our team but today I was running beside Terry. My tits were bouncing up and down but it wasn't worrying me. I kept up with the girls from the other school and easily maintained the pace. I would normally be feeling puffed and dropping back at this stage. I was feeling confident and I knew that my boyfriend would be anxiously looking for me. I was going to show him he had a girlfriend who was worthy of him. With about 1/2 mile to go I picked up my pace, surged to the front of the pack and kept going, leaving them all lagging behind me. I just kept going and going, despite it hurting. The finish line came up and I had won! To my surprise I had recorded the fastest time in the school's history, Terry came in 2nd and Tina was 4th. We had beaten Ft Summer again proving the Saturday win wasn't a fluke. The only Ft Summer girl to finish in the top 4 was Hayley Jensen, who won the Invitational on Saturday. Hayley was running in her school uniform today so I was thinking that running naked was the go. The crowd was small but cheering loudly, obviously very happy for us.

After the race I went to watch the boy's race with my mom and Miss Stevens. They both hugged and congratulated me on my win. I said, "Miss Stevens, it looks like you're missing something." She laughed.

Mom asked, "What is she missing?"

I said, "I know, she's taken her bra off and I don't know if that's all." She lifted her skirt and flashed me her pussy, yep, she's taken her panties off, too. Then Jeff ran his race, he won too, but he always does.

Miss Steven asked, "Are you going to bring your partner over to say hello?" Then she said to mom "Have you heard that that you might have to sign a note for your kids to be naked in my fifth period health class. I have agreed to help out with the middle school program now."

Then my mom said "I already know about it, can't you tell."

A naked Steph and Kevin came up to prove the point.

Miss Stevens smiled and said, "Steph was the one that brought it up, too."

Jeff came over and gave me a big hug. "Wow, you were awesome, Kris, you ran like the wind, I am so proud of you" I was on cloud nine. "Well I have to be to keep up with my awesome boyfriend." I took his hand and said to Miss Stevens "Here is my Program partner and he's also my boyfriend, he just won the Cross Country race like for the millionth time"

Miss Stevens smiled at us and said, "Hi Jeff, it's nice to see you are doing so well. You were such a quiet boy when you were in my class and now you are looking so confident"

Jeff smiled and said "I have had a crush on Kris since 7th grade but I was too shy to say anything to her. On Saturday she came up to me naked and gave me a hug after I won my race. A few days later she has me running around naked, not being shy around girls and is my girlfriend."

"Kris seems to have this knack of getting people to go naked" remarked Miss Stevens "She is working on me and my 8th Grade health class now"

I was grinning and said "I think I will work on the President and the First Lady next" Everyone cracked up at my joke and Jeff and I headed off to shower.

We cleaned up and went to get our clothes. I said, "Jeff, would you mind if we went out to eat tonight like we are? I've had so much fun being naked today and don't want to get dressed" He agreed and we headed to "The Cave" a burger joint where the kids hang out at after the meet.

The owner was a supporter of our school Cross Country team. He was delighted that Jeff and I had won our races. He stood on a table and told every one how pleased he was that Wilson High was winning Cross country like they were when he was a kid at the school. "Everyone can have a free soda" he announced "and as of now there is a new policy in "The Cave". Any one comes in naked doesn't have to pay for food as it is on the house and if you win a race you get served first. "Free food is more enjoyable if you are naked" joked Jeff and everyone laughed and cheered. We got gold star treatment from "The Cave" staff, sat with our friends, enjoyed the food and had a great time. He dropped me off at home. Before I went in I looked at him, kissed him on the lips and thanked him for a wonderful day.

I went inside and my mom asked, "How was your first day in the program?"

"It wasn't as bad as I thought it was going to be, actually it was fun." Then I went upstairs and did my homework before it was time for bed.

Part 5 – Jeff

I walked in and mom asks, "How was your first day naked in school?"

"It was just a like a normal day...NOT. I was with a beautiful naked girl and by the end of lunch she was my girlfriend. Kris is so easy to talk to, can run like the wind and I love being with her."

Mom said, "I'm very happy for you. You have picked a lovely girlfriend." Sandy walked in from outside naked.

Sandy said, "I'm in Kris's 5th period class and mom wrote me a note that I can go naked at school that period too."

He said, "Kris told me that if over half the class bring notes in, Miss Stevens is going to get naked, too." Sandy thought that was mega cool. I went up to my room, did my study and then got ready for bed.

Chapter 5 - Tuesday

Part 1-Jeff

In the morning, Kris got up and then tried to figure out what she was going to wear at school. Then she remembered that she was going to be naked, so she just put anything nice on, cause it was coming off in front of all the students. She went down and ate breakfast with rest the family and waited on me to pick her up.

I got up in the morning and took a shower. I called her. "Kris, what you think about us not wearing any underwear to school since it will be coming right off." She agreed. I got everyone out to the van and we headed over to pick up Kris and her brother and sister. When we got there and I honked, they came right out and I drove and dropped us all off at school.

She said, "Since we're so early, stay here, I have a present for you." She reached down and unzipped my pants and gave me my first blow job ever. She stuffed my cock into her mouth, opening wide to take every inch. It felt wonderful, her tongue dancing along my prick as she caressed my nuts. She was wildly boobing her head, dragging her wet lips along my shaft while increasing the suction.

My balls ached as she worked my cock in and out of her soft, wet mouth. I fucked her mouth so hard that my balls were being bounced against her chin. I tapped her on the shoulder and, when she looked up, gave her a little grin. She didn't care. She just continued slowly and gently bobbing up and down on my dick. I think it took about three more bobs and I exploded. Then I reached down and kissed her, I didn't care she had cum in her mouth. Then I helped her clean up and we walked up to the changing area.

Shirley said, "I'd like to see you two undress each other!"

"Come on, Kris, it's a reasonable request, you know it is,"

"She's right," Kris whispered. "OK, we'll do it. It is a reasonable request," she told the crowd. I felt a lump in my throat like you wouldn't believe. I reached over and took her skirt off, and she wasn't wearing any panties, then I quickly took her blouse off and reached down and fingered her pussy before standing up for her to undress me. I cannot possibly describe how hard I was at that point. I also noticed, with no small degree of astonishment, that she was wet. She took my shirt off, then my pants. I wasn't wearing any underwear either. With all this undressing, did I ever have one hell of hard on. Amazing. She was as turned on by this as I was but she certainly hid it better. Well, maybe not completely as I stood up, I noticed she was blushing. She smiled at me, and bowed to the cheering crowd.

The bell rang, to our friend's dismay. "Sorry, time to go," Kris said, and we went into the door. To my utter shock, she grabbed my hand. Then she leaned into me and whispered, "That was the most sensual thing I've ever done. Thank you." I couldn't speak.

We walked to English, our first class, and what an adventure that was. At one point, she was being fondled by some guy, and I had a girl's hand around my dick and we were still holding hands. I don't know what was more thrilling, having my dick being fondled, or holding Kris's hand.

Miss Thomas asked, "Jeff do you want relief?"

I said, "I'd love relief today and I don't care who gives it to me either."

Since Kris told me to have others to do it. Her best friend, Shirley Smith, was one of many that raised her hand. I picked her to give me relief. She came up and started stroking me, then whispered, "Can I suck it?" I nodded my head and she took it her mouth and sucked like no tomorrow. When I was about to cum I told her, but she kept on sucking and when I started cumming she started swallowing it, but couldn't swallow it all and cum came out of her mouth and ran onto her chin. I helped her clean up and she helped me back to my seat. Nothing else happened during class.

On the way to gym class Kris asked, "Did you enjoy getting a blow job from Shirley?"

"I always wanted a blow job from a cheerleader, but it wasn't as good as the one I got from you, that's because I care about you and no one will ever be as good. We kissed and separated and headed into shower rooms to get ready for gym."

Part 2 – Kris

I've been horny all day and got felt up in the locker room, but I never came. I wish I had but I didn't. But finally, after class was over, in the shower with 3 guys feeling me up, I had a good cum and what a cum it was. I met Jeff in the hallway and we walked to our next class together. He dropped me off at my door with a kiss and headed to his class. This class was boring but I made it through it, then I was happy to be with him again.

We went to lunch and Shirley came by and said, "Kris, thank you for letting me do him. If they're looking for a person for the program I'm willing to it now. I've been needing a good cum ever since I did it." We both laughed and told her we would talk to Mrs. McDonald about it.

"I can't wait to get to the Middle School and see how many of them are going to be naked 5th period."

She asked, "Why are there going to be naked kids in there?" Then I told her the story of what happened yesterday. She added, "That's why my brother asked mom for permission to be naked during that class and she wrote him a note."

"I know of at least 4 that will be naked, and, if half the class does, Miss Steven will get naked too."

She said, "You mean because you're naked, the kids over there want to be naked, too?"

"It was my own brother and sister that started it all, too. When I had my meet last night, they were naked yelling for me. The school plans on starting the program in Middle School, soon, too.”

She said, “WOW! This program is moving down there now.”

“Jeff, remember you’re the model today during art class!”

He said, “I know and I wonder what she’s going to have me do today.”

They both laughed. We headed to Art Class, Mrs. Jones asked, “Are you ready to model today?”

Part 3 - Jeff

“Yes, I am willing and very able.” She had me lay on the couch on my side with my head laying on the arm facing the class. They drew me for 20 min, then I took a break and looked at some of the pics, before having to move to that ladder for them to draw some more.

With 5 mins left in class, Mrs. Jones asked if I wanted relief since I was done modeling.

“Yes, I’d love relief.” Many girls raised their hands for me to pick from. I picked Jaimie Thomas another cheerleader, to do it. She just gave me a hand job and it wasn’t that good either, but you know that after the girl you care does it, no one else can do it as good.

Kris said, “You know my hand was up.”

“Yes, but no one else does it like you. I want our time to be special, at least for another day.” She agreed and she headed to the middle school.

Part 4 – Kris

When I got to Miss Steven's class, she was already naked and the kids were coming in, handing her their notes, and taking their clothes off, too. By the time this got done there were only 7 of the 20 kids who were still dressed. OH my god! Are things starting to change! But I knew they were because of what went on at my house last night. We had a good class with about 5 mins before the bell for the kids to get dressed. A lot of them were yelling to stay naked for the rest of the year. Miss Steven said, “For right now the Program has not started here yet, but, when it does if you’re the ones chosen you’ll be naked all day.” The whole class started yelling, “Hip hip hooray!”

We sat and talked during her open period. I asked, “How about we go and talk to Mr. Harris about starting the program next week? I have an idea for your first batch of kids also. I’m thinking about using Sandy, Keven and Steph, because they know what it’s all about.”

She agreed with me and we headed to his office to talk to him and both of us were naked.

She said, "Kris and I wonder what you think about going ahead and starting the program next week?"

He said, "Why do you think that's so good of an idea and why are you naked?"

She said, "I made a bet with Kris yesterday that if half my class got naked, I'd join them because we had 13 of 20 kids brought notes in. So, that's why I'm naked, and since that was my last class I just haven't got dressed yet."

"I think I know of the right kids for your first group, too."

He asked, "Who do you think would be the right ones and why?"

"Kevin and Steph, my brother and sister and Jimmy, Sandy and Suzy, Jeff's brother and sisters. The reason why they've seen their brother and sister already naked, so it would be easier on them. Also I think I can talk Jeff into coming over here and helping you welcome the program in and get naked with them, maybe Miss Steven could, too."

She said, "That sounds like a every good idea and yes I will, since I'm in charge of the program here."

He said, "That does sound like a good idea, but you mean you would do a second week in the program to help us get started?"

"Yes, I would and I know Jeff would, too."

She said, "I think we to find another 8th grade boy and girl to join them. We need kids that have classes together, too." He agreed and we headed back to her room and just got there before the last bell rang. I headed back to the high school for practice. It was short because of having a meet last night.

I met Jeff afterwards, and asked, "Sweetie, would you do another week in the program to help it get started in the middle school?"

He said, "You know for you I'd do it; why do they want us to do it?"

"I figured the best kids to start the program over there would be your brothers and sisters and us being with them make it a lot easier." He agreed and he'd even help talk his parents into letting them do it. We picked up our clothes and headed to the van and talked awhile waiting for the rest to get done with their practices. "What you think about going to school naked tomorrow?"

Jeff said, "I don't see why we can't because after we get here, we never get dressed again." We both laughed and knew it was true.

They came and got in the van and I asked, "Would you guys like to start the program next week in your school?", as we left and headed to Kris's house to drop off her brother and sister.

Steph said, "You mean I get to start the program, if that's what you mean, yes, yes."

Kevin said, "I'd love to start the program, too."

Sandy said, "I'll do it, too, as long as Kevin is my partner."

Jimmy asked, "Do Suzy and I get to do it, too?"

"Yes, you get to, if you want. Now, we have to talk your parents into it. Jeff and I are doing another week, too, so we can help you with it."

They all thanked us.

We drove to my house and we all went in and both of my parents were home. "Mom and dad, what you think about allowing my brother and sister to help start the program in the middle school next week?"

Mom said, "Why do they want to use rest of our family?"

"It's my idea, because Step and Kevin are in Miss Stevens' class and she's in charge of the program. Jeff and I are doing another week, to help them, too."

Dad said, "If they want to do it, it's okay with both of us."

"We are hoping Jeff's brother and sisters join them, too. Mom, I'm spending the night at Jeff's, if that's okay?"

Dad said, "Since, he's already spent the night here, you can and thanks for telling us." Jeff and I were ready to leave, but, his brother and sisters were swimming in the pool with mine. We went out and joined them for a little while.

Part 5 - Jeff

Kris's mom came out and said, "I just got a phone call from your mom and she wants you guys home for supper now." We all thanked her and we got out of the pool and dried off and headed home.

"Mom and dad, what you think about rest are family being in the program next week in the middle school?"

Dad said, "What are they doing? Moving the program to the middle school now? But, if they want to, it's okay with me." Mom agreed with him.

"Kris and I are doing another week to help the program get started right over there also."

Kris said, "They are making some changes in the rules, but, I'm not certain what they are yet. I'll let you know when I find out." They thanked her.

"Kris is spending the night with me, if that's okay?"

Dad said, "Yes, it is as long as her parents know about it."

Part 6 - Kris

"I told them before I left, that I might not be home tonight and they said it was all right." After we got done eating we went up to his room and worked on our homework together. That was nice having a boyfriend in the same classes where we could do that.

"Can I use your phone to call my sister?"

Jeff answered, "Yes, you can, but why do you want to talk to her?"

"I just came up with an idea for her partner. I'm thinking about Shirley's brother, he's in Miss Steven's class, too."

She dialed home and got mom, "Hi mom, I'm staying here tonight, can I talk to Steph please?"

Steph said, "Hi sis, what do you need?"

"Do you like Joe Smith?"

She said, "I think he's cute. Why do you want to know that?"

"Would you like him to be your partner next week?"

She said, "I'd love to have him for my partner, he's one sweet guy just like your Jeff." I thanked her and told her that Jeff and I will be picking them up in the morning. Then I hung up and then called Shirley.

"Hi Shirley, it's Kris I have a question for you?"

Shirley said, "Yes, go ahead fire it, but, if it's about the program yes, I want to do it, now."

"What you think your parents would say, if your brother gets asked to do the program in the middle school too?"

She said, "You mean they are starting the program over there also. Why do you think they want Joe to be in it?"

"He is in most my sister's classes and she would love to be his partner. If he would like to do it with her?"

She called Joe over to her and asked him that question and then she said, "I just talked to Joe and he would love to be Steph's partner."

Then she asked her parents and they said it was all right for both of them to be in the program.

"I'll talk to Mrs. McDonald for you tomorrow and Miss Steven, too. Who would you like to be your partner?"

She said, "Truthfully, I want Jeff to be mine, but since he's taken I'm not sure yet. Can I let you know later?"

I thanked her and said, "Yes, I'll see you at school tomorrow."

"You know sweetie, there's going to be 11 of us undressing Monday at school?"

He said, "Why is there going to be so many?"

"There is going to be four juniors, four eighth graders, 2 seventh graders and Miss Steven. He leaned over and kissed me and pulled me into bed. He started sucked my tits, making my cunt gush so much that my juices puddled on the sheets beneath me.

He ran his finger around my pussy. My pink interior was shimmering-wet, my erect clit begging for attention. I gripped his head and shamelessly rubbed my pussy all over his face, smearing it with my cream. He held my thighs apart and fucked me with his tongue, then he sucked my clit until I came, flooding his mouth with pussy sauce. Then I get down and sucked him off and I know he's the one I want to take my virginity, but not tonight. I came up and kissed him and we fell asleep in each other arms.

Chapter 6 - Wednesday

Part 1 – Jeff

I woke up first, looked at the clock and knew that if we took a shower together, we'd never get to school on time. I got up and took my shower. I went back to bed and kissed her and told her it was time to get her shower so we could get to school. She did and I sat and waited for her. We dressed in our socks and shoes and went down to eat breakfast. As we were leaving my mom asked, "Aren't you and Kris going to get dressed before you leave?"

I said, "Mom, Kris and I talked about this yesterday and we agreed, why should we get dressed because after we take our clothes off in the morning; we never put them back on." She agreed and we left to pick up Kris' brother and sister to take them to school with us.

After we got to school, we went to the office and asked, "Can we talk to Mrs. McDonald and Mr. Harris?" She called Mrs. Donald on the intercom and she told us to come on in.

Kris said, "I know a girl that want to do the Program next and her brother wants to be Steph's partner; they are Shirley and Joe Smith and their parents have OKed it also. They both thanked her.

Mrs. McDonald asked, "May I ask, are you boyfriend and girlfriend now?"

We both at the same time said, "YES." Kris added, "I'm so happy for you talking me into doing the program or I'd never have met him either."

We were off to first period.

After the bell rang, Miss Thomas asked, "Jeff, you look like you have a problem right now, would you like relief?"

"I'd love relief, my balls are blue and driving me insane." I walked up front and looked around at all the hands up. This time I picked my sweetheart to give me relief. She was so happy, when she jumped out of her desk it turned over. All the class laughed, one of the boys that sat beside her picked up for her. Miss Thomas thanked him. She took my cock in her mouth taking her time, then, she took it out and started stroking it and went down and started sucking on my balls. Oh my god!! She was tea bagging me, she licked her way back up to my tip and went down on me swallowing the whole ting and licking my balls with my cock, she was unreal.

Then Miss Thomas said, "You two are about out of time, you better hurry up." She started, sucking it harder and then I came in her mouth and it dripped down on her tits, too. Miss Thomas knew how big a mess I made so she handed us some towels to clean it up faster. Kris helped me back to my seat with loud applause from the whole class.

Part 2 – Kris

I've never given a blow job that good, I wished it would never have ended. We had to clean up the floor from where my pussy leaked on it also. I'm so much in love with him I can't wait until later on today to get him alone. The rest of class was normal except for the towel I sat on was so wet that I knew it would never be dried by the next class I had to use it in. When we walked out to the room on the way to gym, I asked, "Did I do you as good as you thought I'd do?" with a smirk in my smile.

He said, "You surprised me so much and did more than I ever expected, you showed everyone in that class how much you love me and more."

We stood there and hugged and kissed before we had to separate to get ready for gym, which doesn't take us long.

Shirley asked in the shower room, Jeff, "What have you done to Kris? She turned into a wild lady around you."

He said, "I'm caring about her for all the right reasons and she's the same person, but she's more happy about her life and has found someone that wants to be with her for the right reasons also."

She said, "I sure agree about that, if you weren't with her now I'd come after you even if you were the old shy guy you used to be." She kissed me on the cheek then I kissed her back after she changed clothes I walked her out to the gym being nice to one of my many new friends.

Kris asked, "Shirley, are you trying to steal my boyfriend?"

She said, "I told him, if he wasn't going with you, I'd be after him in a heartbeat. You better never leave him because if get a hold of him; I'll never let go."

Kris asked, "I know you're right about that. How many boys do you know that gets to sleep with you on the first date with your parents okay?"

She said, "Oh my God!! No way you could have ever done that?"

He said, "It wasn't because we wanted to either. We were in her room laying in the bed talking, we fell asleep, then her mom came in at 11:30 and said, "I have no problem with you staying tonight but you should let your parents know."

She said, "That sure is a wild way to end a first date and with lots of trust from her parents also." We had gym outside playing soccer and my nipples got really hard running in the cool breeze. Soccer is not one of my favorite sports, but playing it naked made it more fun. I blocked one ball with my chest, and it squeezed my tits. Were they ever red and very sore, I know I'm going to have a bruise there also. A little after that, the coach pulled me out because he didn't want his new lead runner getting hurt. Then the whistle went off for all us to go get our showers; you know I'm going to miss gym on Thursday and Friday this week. Due to being able to use the gym only 3 classes a day one week we get gym on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, the other two days we have health class on the other week we have health the first part then gym only for the last two days. I told the boys to take it easy on my tits as they were very sore still.

Part 3 – Jeff

The shower scene was wilder than ever, I had Shirley giving me a blow job, while Terry was playing with my balls, when I came they both licked me clean then they washed me up before the teacher told them they had to get ready for class. After I got dried off and met Kris in the hallway, I was running late from the action in the shower and asked, "Would you mind cutting across the gym so we're not late to class?"

She agreed and we headed back into the gym. When we came out the other side it was a 7th grade class in there with my brother and sister in it. You should have seen the faces on all the kids, their eyes looked like they were popping out and their mouths had dropped all the way down to their knees. This was almost as much fun as the first time it happened at home. I went through the middle school girl's locker room, they started screaming, then Mrs. Bangs looked in and stared at me with a glare and yelled at me, "WHY ARE YOU IN THE GIRLS LOCKER ROOM?"

I told her, "I'm in the Naked in School Program in the High School and I have to go to gym in their room. I'm running late for class and Kris is cutting through the boys at the same time to get to my drafting and her art classes."

She said, "Please don't do this again, I think you about gave all the girls in here a heart attack. Thanks for explaining it to me also."

Kris opened the door to the boys room and walked through it and the boys looked her over and yelled, "Mr. Carr, we have a naked girl in your locker room."

He came out and stared at her and asked, "Why are you naked and in the boys locker room?"

She said, "Not as you think; I'm not a streaker, I'm in the program in the high school and running late for my sewing class, so I'm cutting through. By high school rules I have to go through the boys room."

He said, "Thank you for explaining and please don't do it again." She met me in the hallway and we walked to class laughing all the way and this made us later than ever for class. But, you know if I had a chance I'd do it again. After we got to our classes they were boring as usual.

Shirley asked, "Why didn't I see you two lover in the hall after gym class?" We both laughed and told her what we did and all the trouble we got in. Then the 3 of us walked to lunch together, how could I be any happier walking with my girlfriend and her best friend and a cheerleader. We had a nice lunch together, then Kris and I got called to the office.

Then we got there the secretary sent us straight into Mrs. McDonald's office, she asked, "Why did you two cut through the middle school locker rooms?"

"We were running late to our third period classes and they are closer if we cut through there. We know we made a big mistake and we are sorry we did it." She thanked us and sent us on to our fifth period art class.

Part 4 – Kris

"You know Art Class is becoming one of my favorites class and before this week; I hated coming to it.”

He said, “I totally agree with you I wonder what type of modeling we get to do today and it could be as a couple also.”

Mrs. Jones said, “Are you going to be our first couple modeling together?” You know we are and we can't wait to get started. She had Jeff against the back of the couch on his side, then I slide in front of him, she had him put his arm around me.”

I whispered to Jeff, “You know there is nothing better to be laying down with you here and doing it in school also.” We both started laughing about it.

Mrs. Jones asked, “Why are you both laughing?” I told her what I told him. She started chuckling with us also. After about 20 mines, she had us take a break an walk around looking at some of the drawing; some of the drawing were very good especially the one from Shirley; she sure is a very good artist had the look of love in are faces.

She had us come back up to do one more pose, this time I laid down on my back, he laid on top to me it looked like we were fucking but we weren't. He leaned down and kissed me. Mrs. Jones asked, “Are you going to stay kissing through the whole pose?”

“I sure can try it and I know it's going to be fun.” The whole class laughed even Mrs. Jones giving us a funny look. It was slow much fun feeling his cock between my legs; he was getting harder by the second.

With about 7 minutes left in class, Mrs. Jones asked, “Jeff, would you like relief?”

He said, “Oh my god!! Yes, I do being with this sexy lady under me my cock is so hard and hurting. If I don't get relief soon my cock would turn blue and fall off.”

She said, “I think you better get up and get some then.” So he got off of me, then I got up and he sat down, I started giving me a blow job, but I surprised me and invited Shirley up to help her to no surprise she did and she started licking my balls, while I was deep threading his cock which wasn't any easy chore. I tapped her on the shoulder and we traded positions. I could tell by the way his balls felt that he was going to cum very soon. So, I worked my way up and started licking one side of his cock while she licked the other; we meet at the tip and kissed. You know I've never had so much fun.

He said yelling, “Oh my god!! You too I'm CUMMMMMING and CUMMMMMING and I did all over their faces and in their mouths after they sucked it all up. They traded cum back and fore.

Mrs. Jones said, “Let's get all of guys cleaned up the bell is about to ring!! We almost didn't get cleaned up in time, before the bell rang.

He said, Thank you for the most wonderful blow job, I've ever had by the two sweetest girls in the school. What brought you up to the idea of having Shirley join you?"

"Well, she's my best friend and I know you like her also; I've always want to try things different and didn't think you'd mind." I kissed him good bye and headed over to the middle school to see what's in store for today.

When I got there, Miss Stevens was already naked and said, "Today class, all we are going to do is talk about The Naked in School Program; I taught that would be a good idea since it's starting here next week. You wouldn't believe of the 7 kids that didn't bring notes in 4 more of them did. She asked, "Of the other 3 kids is there a reason you haven't brought a note in yet?"

Kimmy said, "I wanted my mom to write me a note, but no young lady should ever go naked around anyone except the man that I'll be married too." The other to kids agreed with her as their parents told them the same thing.

Miss Stevens said, "Thank you, I wondered if it was tour idea or your parents now I know. Today's lesson won't be out of any book, but in will be about The Naked in School Program for rest of the class here to know the program starts here next week and the kids in are; Steph and Kevin Thompson, Sandy James and Joe Smith which are all in this call now. We also have 2 7th graders and they are Jimmy and Suzy James which are Sandy's brother and sister. Do we have any questions?"

Kimmy asked, "May I ask how whose were the ones that were picked first?"

"I'm helping starting the program over here and I helped them pick the first group. They were picked because their Brother and sister are in the program now and they know a little about what going on. Joe was picked because his sister will be doing the program next week."

Steph said, "I also like him as a friend and wanted him to be my partner."

Miss Stevens asked, "Is there any other thing you want to know about it?"

Kimmy asked, "How much of the school day does it last for?"

I read out the pamphlet I got from Mrs. McDonald on Monday lucky I had it with me. "This compulsory nudity will continue within the confines of the school during school hours, and shall include all school sponsored activities during or after normal school hours. School sponsored activities shall include but are not limited to: Sporting Events, whether as spectator or participant also you have to shower with the opposite sex after gym class and you enter the gym from their door also Theater Productions of the Drama Department Dances Concerts, Recitals, or Performances by the Music Department I also added since we have a carnival this weekend there too The program runs from Monday morning until you arrive back at school the following Monday."

Miss Stevens added, "I'm in charge with the program in the middle school and the first week of the program I'll agree to do those rules also."

Steph asked, "Since I'm on the swim team, I'll have to do my meets naked like you do your cross country meet?"

"You are very right, on Monday, we are having an assembly after homeroom for all the kids in both school; during that we will all get naked. I want the program to work here also. So Jeff and I are doing another week."

Then Miss Stevens looked at the clock and said, "It's time for you all to get dressed and get ready to go to your next class." Pretty soon the bell rang for them to leave for their 6th period.

She and I sat talked and graded papers during her free period until it was time for me to leave for my cross country practice.

Part 5 – Jeff

After Kris left me for the middle school, Shirley asked, "would you mind if I walk with you to are last 2 classes?"

"I have no problem with that, you're a sweetheart and my girlfriend's best friend and I hate walking around by myself." I kissed her on the cheek, we headed to class after that great blow job I got last period I didn't need one."

Brian Shaw asked, "How do you get to walk around with the 2 best looking girls in the school?" He also on my Cross Country Team.

"You remember what happened to me Saturday after I won the Invitational."

He said, "Yes, I do you got hugged by Kris then."

"We got talking and she asked me to do the program with her and now she's my girlfriend and Shirley here is her best friend and Kris is at the middle school now, so, she's keeping me company." Then I introduced Shirley to him.

She said, "I'm going to do the program next week and I haven't found a partner yet, would you like to talk to me after we get done with practice and get to know each other.

He said, "I'd love to get to know you what would your boyfriend say?"

She said, "You wouldn't believe me I don't have one, for some reason none of them come around me; I just hang around with them think they think I'm going with one of them but they never ask me."

He said, "I'd love to get to know you, I might even want to be your partner also." After my last 2 classes I meet Kris at the gym for cross country practice I told her I think Shirley found her a partner.

She asked, "Who did she find I hope he's as nice as you?"

"Brian Shaw from are cross country team. He and I were talking before 5th period and Shirley was with me and I introduced them to each other."

She said, "Oh my god!! He's a nice guy also I'm sure happy you did we might have to invite them over to my house to go swimming with us?"

Practice was short because we have a meet at Johnson High School tomorrow, the coach told us we had to leave school at 2:40 and it was about a 45 min drive there. After practice, we walked out to the van and waited on rest the kids to come out.

"I'm going to take my brother and sisters home first and tell my parents I'm spending the night with you, if that's okay?"

She leaned over and kissed me and said, "Yes, that's okay I really can't spend tonight without you after all we did today in school."

Then Shirley walked by with Brian and said, "Okay, you love birds why don't you find a room!!"

Kris said, "I sure plan on finding a room with a bed in it and it's my bedroom and he's spending the night also." Shirley laughed at me.

Brian gave us a look of disbelief and didn't believe I really said that.

"Brian, there's one thing you have to learn about Kris is when she says something she means it also."

He asked, "You mean you and Kris are spending the night together?"

"Brian this will be the third time we have slept together and the first time was by accident. We were laying in her bed talking on our first date and fell to sleep. Her mom came in and said, "I don't care, if you spend the night, but I really think you should call home. He and Shirley walked away in shock. As our brothers and sisters were coming to the van, I headed to my house and dropped off my brother and sisters and asked my parents, "Is it all right if I spend the night at Kris's?"

Dad said, "Yes it is as long as it is alright with her parents also." I left and hopped in the van and we all headed over to her house.

Part 6 – Kris

“Hi mom and dad, do you mind if Jeff spends the night with me?”

Dad said, “You know he can but thanks for asking.”

Mom pulled me off to the side and whispered to me, “Are you on the pill?”

“No mom I got the shot at school on Monday instead.” She gave me a big hug and thanked me for doing it. Then we were all called in for dinner after Jeff and I went up to my room first we did our homework.

We laid down and started kissing, he started licking my ears slowly working his way down to my nipples. He reached down and spread her legs open and inserted one finger from each hand inside her cunt as she rubbed her clit briskly.

I crawled between her legs and replaced her hands with my mouth. He licked my dripping-wet snatch from top to bottom and back again, guzzling my cream and then flicking her clit. And then, the very second I relaxed my thighs, he was on top of me, pushing his cock into my soggy hole.

Kris said, “Yes! Fuck, me! Do it Hard! I want it bad!” My cunt was really tight and I shuddered forcefully when he was all the way inside. Then I sighed and said, “You’re inside me! You’re the first man to be inside me!”

Christ! He just took his girlfriend’s virginity and I took his also. He nearly shot my full load of spunk right then and there! He didn’t though. He was more concerned about my pleasure than his own, so he relaxed, holding off. He settled into a slow grind as I wrapped my legs and his hips and my arms around his shoulders. I pulled him toward me and we kissed passionately, my tongue all over his mouth. He pumped my pussy slowly and swiveled his hips, rubbing my clit simultaneously. Gradually, he picked up speed, and as he fucked her harder. She moaned louder, lapsing into a frenzied panting as her twat lubricated like crazy.

Soon, there was a huge wet spot underneath me as I pounded her snatch. My tight pussy fluttered around his cock, and he kicked into high gear, wanting more than anything to cum inside her before her climax finished. I did dousing her sweet pussy with my big load of cum.

We got up because the bed was a mess stained my blood and cum and went and took a shower. Then we changed my bedsheets and took them down and started washing them.

Mom said, “It looks like my little girl is a full blown woman now.”

“Yes, I am and he sure did a great job of it also.” We headed back upstairs and went to sleep in each other arms.

Thursday

Part 1 – Kris

I woke up at 6:30, we had an half hour before we had to leave. I reached over and started stroking his cock feeling it grow hard, hot and throbbing in my hand. It looked exciting and beautiful to me and I couldn't resist taking it in my mouth. I looked up and saw his eyelids begin to flutter, so I turned around so he could lick my pussy. I was still sore from the hard fuck he gave me last night but I was turned on and already very wet. His tongue felt good on my clit and I was making a mess all over his face. Inspired by the licking my pussy was getting, I deep throat him enthusiastically, not an easy task because his 6 ½ incher was quite thick and filled my throat fully. We were groaning and moaning as our mouths pleasured each other and I felt his cock swell and spurt his baby making juice down my throat. My pussy convulsed and squeezed his two fingers that were deep inside me as he tongued my clit which was extended way out of it's hood. I love the taste of his cum, there isn't anything sweeter for me.. “Good morning sweetie, how was your alarm today?” I asked with a cute smiley smirk..

He said, “Oh sweetheart, that's the best way I've ever been woken up!.” I turned around and French kissed him, it sure tasted good with our cums mixed together. We had to hurry to the shower to get there before everyone else. After we had showered he called home and told his mom that we would be over around 7:45 to pick the kids up. I reminded her that we couldn't bring them home tonight because we had a meet out of town. “Thanks for reminding me, Jeff, I had totally forgotten about it, with you all going in the van I just don't plan being ‘mom's cab’ on school days anymore. Have fun at the meet.”

We went downstairs, ate breakfast and talked to the rest of the family.

“Mom, you know Jeff can't bring Steph and Kevin home tonight, we have a meet out of town.”

She said, “Why don't I bring all the kids here after school? Then Jeff can take them home when you get back”. We took off for Jeff's house early, so he could go in and tell his mom that the plans had been changed and that the kids would be at my place until we got back.

Jeff came out with his brother, sisters, Sandy hopped in with Kevin, Suzy, and Jimmy sat with Steph. Later while we were driving, I looked back and there was Sandy and Kevin kissing. I told Jeff about it and we both started laughing. “Hey you two what's going on back there?” I asked with a sweet smile on my face.

Sandy said, “You have a nice brother here and I am just getting to know him better.” “Getting to know Sandy better is fun” Kevin agreed.

“Eeeeeewwww, Sandy and Kevin are doing kissy face” yelled Suzy and Jimmy together. Steph just smiled.

“Looks like I made a good pairing with you two for next week.” We all laughed. When we arrived at school I reminded them that my mom was picking them up tonight. We all got out of the van and I saw Shirley and Joe walking toward us.

Joe walked to Steph and asked, "May I carry your books?" She reached out and handed them to him, then kissed him on the cheek. They started walking away with Sandy, Kevin and the younger twins.

Shirley said, "Brian is my partner for next week and I was wondering if the cheerleader are allowed to go to your away meets."

"Let's go ask Mrs. McDonald and we can tell her who your partner is at the same time." She agreed and the three of us headed to the office.

"Hi Mrs. Conner, can we talk to Mrs. McDonald please? Are you going to watch your daughter run tonight?"

She said, "Yes, I plan on going. I've not missed one of her meets since she came here." She called Mrs. McDonald on the intercom and told her that we were there to see her. Mrs. Connor told us to go right in.

Shirley said, "I found my partner and it's Brian Shaw, is that OK with you? Also could I ask permission for the cheerleaders to go to the meets with the cross country teams?"

Mrs. McDonald said, "I expect we can set that up for you, if you ladies would like to go. I think that Brian would be an excellent partner for you."

She called Mr. Ferrell on the intercom and asked him if they had room on the bus for 5 more."

He asked, "Yes, there is plenty of room on the bus, who wants to come with us?"

She said, "The cheerleaders want to come and I heard Mrs. Conner saying she was going so we might as well save her the drive."

He said, "Please tell them that we are leaving at 2:40, we need plenty of time to warm up."

Mrs. McDonald said, "You can go to the meet, please have all the cheerleaders come into the office to get notes so they can leave school early." Shirley thanked Mrs. McDonald and we left to head to our first period. Shirley saw Jaimie in the hall and told her that we could go to the cross-country meet tonight on the bus. She asked Jaimie to help her tell the rest of the cheerleaders and do not forget to pick up their notes in the office.

Jaimie went to the office and asked, "May I use the phone, please? I need to call my mom to bring my cheer leading outfit to wear at the Cross Country meet." Mrs. Conner dialed the number she gave her and handed her the phone. Jaimie arranged with her mom to bring her outfit to school.

Mrs. Conner said, "I'll have your outfit here for you in the office, tell the other cheerleaders I will ring their mom's to bring in their outfits too. Here's your note." Jaimie thanked her and headed on to class.

During the announcements at the beginning of first period, Mrs. McDonald said, "I need all the cheerleaders here after first period." Then she told Mrs. Conner that she could ride the bus to the meet tonight if she wished. Mrs. Connor thanked her and said she would love to go on the bus...

Jeff, Shirley and I arrived at first period, and then Miss Thomas asked, "Do either of you two need relief?"

"No I don't."

Jeff said, that he didn't need relief either. After class we found Brian and he joined us walking to health class.

"Miss Jordan, are you going to join Miss Stevens on Monday and strip at assembly?"

Part 2 - Jeff

She said, "I didn't know she was and if she does I'll do it also." Then asked, "Would either of you two like relief?" This time we both wanted relief. We picked Brian and Shirley to help us.

This was really exciting. This time both our best friends who had just hooked up together were going to help us get off! Shirley had already been extra good earlier in the week and now I was going to watch Brian help Kris too. Brian was just as enthusiastic as Shirley was and though he looked a little nervous, he had a huge erection tenting his pants. I was thinking Shirley had a surprise in store for her because Brian was no slouch in the package area. I had seen him hard when we watched some porn together and he was bigger than I was.

I felt Kris entwine her fingers in mine and our two best friends got to work on us. Shirley got straight to it. She licked up my shaft then around the head and engulfed me into her mouth. She was gently fondling my balls as for the second time that day I was getting deep throat. Brian was sucking Kris' tits whilst fingering her pussy and she was as wet as could be. You could hear the wet noises of finger fucking and cock sucking along with the ecstatic moans of a lucky Jeff and Kris. It did not take long before I could feel my balls tighten and send my cum shooting into the delightful warm wet mouth of Shirley. She sucked it all in and was licking me clean when Kris erupted with Brian's head between her legs. She squeezed my hand with so much force I thought she would squash it.

Brian went red in the face and said, "Miss, I have cum in my pants, may I go and change?" Shirley said she had wet her panties through and needed to clean up also. Miss Jordan gave them both a note and they went out to clean up. Kris and I helped each other back to our seats, when we sat down she smiled at me and said it was awesome, I agreed entirely.

Shirley and Brian returned to class looking more comfortable and after the bell, we talked about how great the relief was especially because we were friends.

Shirley said, "Do you know I am coming to your cross country meet on the bus with you?"

Brian said, "No, I didn't but, it's going to be nice having some one we know over there beside Tina's mom." She kissed him on the cheek as they continued walking to class with both couples holding hands. We left them off at their class and we walked across to ours. This was a boring class because there were all boys in it. We finally finished that class, met up with our girlfriends and were walking down the hallway when someone yelled, "You are a fucking asshole, James, and I am going to punch your fucking head in." I turned around and a fist smashed into the side of my head knocking me backwards. Monty Taylor jumped on top of me, punching and screaming about me stealing his girlfriend. Brian pulled him off me and Shirley slammed him in the head with her book bag. Kris had been knocked over by his attack and was just getting up, her face contorted with anger. "You bastard," she yelled, "You sucked at being a boyfriend". If looks could kill, Monty Taylor would have been fried to charcoal. Miss Stevens, Kris' middle school mentor, was on her way to the office and saw what happened. She asked two boys to get hold of Monty Taylor, take him to the office and hold him until she got there. She asked Brian and Shirley to take Kris and me to see the nurse and then headed to the office. The nurse checked me over, gave me an ice pack to prevent swelling, and cleaned up the blood from a split lip. Kris was okay except for a sore bum and the nurse said she would probably have a bruise. We were both a bit shocked but OK. We hugged each other as we calmed down and I said, "You have a potty mouth my lovely, how do you know that Jacob's parents are not married?" She giggled and said it was common knowledge. We both burst into laughter as we comforted each other.

Part 3 – Kris

I thought "Oh my God! What's come up with John; I've never seen him this mad as long as I've known him."

Mrs. Terrell asked, "What ever happened to Jeff, he sure looks a mess?"

“Monty got pissed that I’m with Jeff now and started beating him up. Miss Stevens got some boys to take him to the office. I hope he gets into serious trouble, he is a total jerk.” Mrs. Terrell started cleaning him and putting ice on his face and some of his scratches, but nothing was very serious. While we were there, Mrs. McDonald came over to see if we were all right.

Then she said, “I bet you want to know what’s going to happen to Monty. He is very lucky he has not been expelled. He has been sent home to cool off. The first thing he has to do is the program next week. That is one rule we are adding. He will be doing detention for a long time and will ban from any school sporting team as well as being banned from the prom.”

“Oh yea! He deserves all he gets, after what he did to me and now to Jeff.”

She asked, “Why do you say that?” I told her what happened when I told him I was doing the program on Friday. She said, “Because of that, he took it out on your new boyfriend.”

“You should pick his partner also, since he’s doing it under punishment.” She agreed. “Kris I never knew that Monty was that type of person.”

and headed back to her office. When the nurse has finished with Jeff, we headed to the cafeteria to get lunch. Due to all the fuss, we arrived late to class. Mrs. Jones told us to sit down and relax. I think Mrs. Conner told her what happened.

After class, I walked Shirley to the office, to pick up her outfit on my way to the middle school. “Miss Stevens, thank you so much for helping us. I have leave at 2:30; we are town of town for a meet against St. Theresa High School.”

She said, “I am pleased I was there to see it all, it was a totally unprovoked attack. I hope you are both OK and win your meet.” I thanked her and watched the kids come in and start taking their clothes off. My brother and sister were both holding hands with Joe and Sandy when they came in. I wondered if they had ever let go of each other hands since the last time I saw them.

I told her, “Miss Jordan will also be getting undressed at assembly on Monday.”

She asked, “How do you know that?”

“I talked to her about that during my second period class.” Nothing much was happening except almost all the eighth graders being naked.

Miss Stevens asked, “Why did Monty Taylor attack Jeff like that?”

“You know I was going with him before the program. He broke up with me because I decided to do it. Now he has to do the program for causing trouble, as well as detention and not being allowed to be on sports teams or go to the prom.”

She said, “It looks like he got what he deserved and more.”

Then it was time for me to leave to catch the bus over to our meet. Coach Ferrell had the team sit together to talk over what he knew about the other teams. The cheerleaders sat in back with Mrs. Conner. They all had to change clothes since none of them knew they were going today. It was fun watching them change their tops without showing their bras. Shirley did not worry about it; she took off her blouse and put her top on like there were no boys around. She did the same thing with her skirt and bottoms. At one time, she was naked from the waist down. She then put on her cheer bottoms and then her skirt. You should have seen the looks from the other cheerleaders, not to mention the boys.

Jaimie asked, "How can you strip down naked and change clothes like that with all the boys around?"

Shirley said, "I might as well tell you all. Next week I have volunteered for the Naked in School Program and Brian Shaw is going to be my partner." A little while later, we arrived at St. Theresa High School. When we got off the bus there was a lot of yelling when they saw Kris and I get off the bus.

We started warming up, then Coach Ferrell came up and said, "We have a problem, they won't let Kris run because the rule book says, "Every competitor in a team must wear the same uniform."

Tina said, "Can I take the girls team into the bus and talk to them? I have an idea."

He said, "Go ahead, but please make it quick!"

After we got to the bus, I told them. "I'm sorry teammates, but you know the school rules, I can't wear my uniform."

Then Tina said, "I've got an idea, since we all have to be dressed alike, why don't we take our uniforms off and go naked? Then the whole varsity can run the race."

Jodi Carey said, "I can't do that if my family ever found out I'd never be able to leave home again." The rest of the varsity girls' team agreed to do it. Tina went out and told coach the plan and he was surprised but agreed with it. She came back in and told us. The rest of the team got undressed

Coach Ferrell walked off to Mrs. Conner and said, "I don't want you surprised when our team comes back, all the girls are naked."

She said, "Wow, why is that?"

He said, "They're making us follow rules and all the girls have to be in the same uniform. They knew Kris couldn't get dressed, so they agreed to get naked and run the race that way except for Jodi Carey, she would not do it." The girls came out and finished warming up.

Coach went over to the other team and asked, "Are you ready to race us? All the girls in my team have the same uniform now." The St Theresa coach looked over and saw 6 naked girls warming up. You should have seen the look on his face. He gave Coach Ferrell a funny look but knew we were within the rules. The girls walked up to the starting line and the gun fired to start the girl's race. I felt good and went out with the leaders again. With the race at the half way mark, Tina Connor, Terry May and I made up the lead pack. In the next group were Tiff and Tammy running with 2 girls from their team. When we got close to the finish line, I saw that Shirley had taken her outfit off and all the boys' team were naked. The three of us crossed the finish together, followed about 20 seconds behind us by Tiff and Tammy, then followed by their team. Our 6th girl was only beaten by two St Theresa runners. Lots of laughs!! The team running naked finished 1 through 5 and 8th. We all stayed naked and watched the boys' race even though the rest of the girls could have dressed. Mrs. Conner didn't say anything negative to her daughter but she congratulated the whole team.

She said, "I know that our team will do anything to keep the team together."

Tina said, "If I knew it was this much fun running naked I'd have done it a long time ago." We all laughed including her mom.

As the boys' race was finishing Brian and Jeff came in first and second, they won their meet also. I walked over to Shirley and asked, "What made you want to take your outfit off?"

She said, "I saw all you girls were running naked and wanted to support you the best way possible. When I saw my Brian naked I got wetter down there than I've ever been before." We both walked over and hugged our boyfriends and kissed them. You should have seen Brian's mouth drop when he saw Shirley was as naked as he was.

He said, "Sweetie you sure look hot, but how come YOU are naked?"

"I saw the whole girls' team naked so I undressed to support them. Thanks for compliment, you may just get rewarded for that," She said with a twinkle in her eyes. Coach Ferrell called us on to the bus to head back home.

He said, "You can sit with anyone you want. Way to go teams for supporting your naked teammate so well."

I sat in the back of the bus with Jeff, Brian and Shirley. Of us, couples were both hugging and kissing. Two cocks started to rise and I saw that Brian's was huge! It was about half an inch longer than Jeff's was but not as thick. We sure are lucky to have such nice and steady boyfriends. Shirley got down and started sucking Brian off and I thought that two could play at that game. I licked and sucked Jeff and was turned on by the noises made by Brian who was getting his first ever blow job. Brian finished first, well this was my sweetie's third cum for the day and he was a little more used to the excitement. Shirley looked happy, Brian ecstatic and Jeff contented. My turn tonight if my pussy can take it I thought.

After we got back to school, I asked, "Brian, would you and Shirley like to come over for a swim before you go home?" They asked if they could take a rain check on it. We agreed and invited them over tomorrow and to have Shirley bring her brother with her.

"Hi mom you wouldn't believe what happened at the meet today?"

Mom asked, "What happened? Did you win again?"

"Yes but its better than that. Our opponents told us that we all had to be dressed in the same uniform, so the rest of the girls went ahead and took their clothes off. All except for Jodi Carey, because she said her family would never let her out again. She did not run. We won the meet with five of our girls coming in before any of the other team. Tina Connor said she loved running naked."

She said, "Wow! I can't believe that and Mrs. Conner was there to see it?"

"Yes, she was and she congratulated the rest of the girls for joining in. It was Tina's idea to do it." Then Jeff and I went out back for a quick swim. Sitting in the corner were Sandy and Kevin, kissing and running their hands all over each other's naked bodies. I asked, "Can't you two keep your hands off each other?"

Sandy said, "I don't want to, I'm starting to care for him a lot." "I never knew that girls were much fun, especially Sandy," agreed Kevin. After Jeff and I cooled off, we towed off and Jeff decided to take his crew home.

He said, "It's time for us to go home, you know mom will have supper ready by now." They all got out of the pool and were dried off. Seeing that Jeff was driving home naked, none of them got dressed either. I kissed him good-bye. He said, "I love you and I'll miss you until tomorrow."

"I love you too and can't wait until tomorrow gets here either." After they left, I told Steph, "Shirley and Brian are coming over after practice tomorrow and I told them to bring Joe with them." She was so happy that she ran over and gave me a big hug and kiss. I went inside and found something to eat before I went upstairs to do my homework and get ready for bed.

Chapter 8 - Friday

Part 1 - Kris

I woke up after tossing and turning all night, I had so much trouble getting to sleep because my sweetie was not with me. I think I played with my pussy for 20 minutes last night to calm me down before I was able to get sleep. I got up, took my shower and dried off. Then put my shoes and socks on, grabbed my books and went down to eat breakfast. "Mom, would you mind if I shaved my pussy clean?" asked her with a big smile on my face.

Mom said, "Honey that's completely up to you but I'd ask Jeff for his opinion first." Then I heard a honk and almost ran all the way to the van. My brother and sister were not far behind me.

When we got to school, Mrs. McDonald saw us and told us she needed to talk with us. We followed her into the office and she said, "I just want to thank you for doing the program and we are going to try something different today. All classes will be shortened by 10 min and we will have an assembly in the gym. We think that it will be easier for people in the program to have it start on Friday at a special assembly at the end of classes and finish at the same time the next Friday. They will have all weekend to prepare themselves. As you two started your program on Monday, you still have to be in it through Sunday. However seeing that you have both volunteered to do another week to help the middle school it does not really matter. The new bunch in the program gets to dress next Friday during the assembly." We thought that was a very good idea.

"Did you know Miss Stevens and Miss Jordan are going to strip to support their students?"

She said, "I hadn't heard that but it sounds like a good idea. Mrs. Jeffers has written to me requesting that her daughter Sharon do the program and I am going to partner her up with John this week."

"Oh my God! He hates her but I love it. Maybe he will learn a lesson. She's a nice girl who keeps to herself, just like Jeff used to be." Mrs. McDonald asked us not to tell anyone about Sharon and John. We both thanked her for telling us and told her that we could keep that news confidential. We left her office and headed to class.

On the way to class, Alice Flores asked, "May I play with your cock again, Jeff? You were so sweet for letting me do it on Monday." Jeff nodded his head and we were surprised when she leaned over and kissed it. She added, "I just gave it a kiss because it was the first cock I have ever touched and you are a really nice boy." Off she went, skipping and singing, she was so happy. We looked at each other and shared a smile Alice had warmed our hearts. We arrived at class and headed to our seats.

Part 2 - Jeff

"Would either one of you want relief?" Miss Thomas asked.

Alice had a bigger effect than just warming my heart; my cock was rock hard after that sweet kiss. "I sure do need it, Miss Thomas." I said as I headed to the front of the room. I found my favorite seat this week. I remembered what Mrs. McDonald told us about Sharon Jeffers. She was in our class because her English is a little behind the rest of her senior class. Her hand was up so I asked for her. She was so surprised but very happy to help me out. Sharon hurried to the front of the class and smiled at me. She leaned over with a look of concentration on her face and started stroking it whilst rubbing my balls with her other hand. Sharon plucked up her courage, lowered her head and started sucking on me. I think she is starting to loosen up from being in class with Kris and me all week. She sure knew how to give head! Her tongue was flicking all over my sensitive cock head and she could suck like a vacuum cleaner. It took very little time before that familiar tingle in my balls began. I tried to warn her I was about to cum but she kept right on sucking. “I’m CUMMING and CUMMING,” I moaned as my seed pumped into her mouth. When Kris heard me say that, she came up to help, Sharon clean me up and licked her lips afterwards. I have never had so much fun. I thanked of both them and kissed Sharon on the cheek which she returned. The rest the class was the usual boring shit.

After class, Sharon stopped and said, “Thank you for letting me do that, I know my mom wants me in the program but I don’t want to do it because of these.” She lifted her loose fitting top and showed us some of the biggest tits I have ever seen. They looked like they did not sag that much either.

Kris said, “Sharon you have nothing to worry about, they are nice and you should show them off more. Can you keep a secret?”

Sharon said, “Yes I can, why do you want to know?”

She said, “I am not supposed to tell anyone but Mrs. McDonald told us your mom had asked for you to be put in the program. You are in the program this coming week. Kris and I have volunteered to do a second week so we will be doing it with you. If you need to be around either of us please do because your partner is John Jacobs. We know he gives you a hard time so you know we are your friends and will be there for you. We are having a pool party over at Kris’ house tonight and you are invited. John will not be there either.

She said, “Thank you for inviting me and yes, I would love to come but I have to let my mom know.” She started walking to her class with a little wiggle. I think she unbuttoned a few buttons also.

When we got to class, I spoke privately to our teacher. “Miss Jordan We are having a swim party for all the new ones in the program tonight, would you like to join us? Well everyone except John that is, after his attack on me he is not welcome” She said, “That sound’s like a fun idea. Do either of you need relief?” We both said we did not. Class was very interesting. We were used as models showing all the class many things you would never learn out of a book.

After class, we chatted with Miss Jordan. “Miss Jordan, do you know who John’s partner is going to be?” She nodded her head, saying she did. Then I added, “She gave me a relief blow job last period. We had a talk with her during break. She is so worried about being naked because she is self-conscious about her big breasts. She showed them to us and they are some of the biggest breasts I ever seen.”

She said, Oh my god! You’d never know it, the tops she wears.”

“You might now; we saw her unfastening a few buttons in the hall.” We had to hurry to our next class, but it was nice talking to her. I dropped Kris off at the door and headed across the hall to my class.

After being attacked yesterday, I am a bit more cautious. I walked out of class and looked around to see if John was near. Then I walked across the hall to get Kris, linked up with Shirley and Brian as we headed to lunch. Shirley asked, "Do you know why all our classes are shorter today?" Kris and I played it dumb because we want it to be a surprise for them.

Part 3 - Kris

It was art class after lunch. Mrs. Jones said, "Are you two ready to model for us for the last time?"

"Why does it have to be our last time? We are very ready to model."

She said, "I didn't know you'd want to model after you were done with the program." She had me get on my knees on the couch sideways and had Jeff get behind me. I felt his cock up against my ass getting harder and harder. I wish he would put it in me but I knew it would be too hard to do that with the whole class around. She asked, "Can you stay like that for a while?"

He said, "Give me one second I have a problem." He lowered himself down, entered me and then he relaxed. "I've got the problem sorted now," he said with a huge grin on his face.

"I don't think you guys can say still like that." Laughed Mrs. Jones.

"I know but it's going to be fun to try." The whole room started laughing. We did very well staying as still as we could. I felt so alive with my lover's big cock buried deep inside me with his arms holding my tits. With about 10 minutes left in the class, Mrs. Jones said, "If you two need relief go ahead and take it" I started rocking back and forth, fucking his cock in my sloppy wet pussy. He very quickly came inside of me. She said, "I didn't expect you to do that here in school."

"There's no better way to end a program week than with a good quickie." I turned around and cleaned his cock off with my tongue. To my surprise, there was someone behind me cleaning my pussy off it was Shirley. She is getting as bad as I am about having fun. I kissed Jeff good-bye and headed over to the middle school. When I got there I asked, "Miss Stevens, do you have any plans for tonight?"

She said, "No I don't, why do you want to know?"

"We are having a swim party for all the kids in the program next week except for John. Miss Jordan said she'll be there so I'm inviting you also."

She said, "That sounds like fun! Do you know why they have shortened the classes in both schools today?" I whispered to her because her kids were coming in and undressing as they have done everyday but Monday, "I'll tell you after class." "Oh I know Kris!" I helped plan it. I was just going to tell you in advance. I suppose Mrs. McDonald has already told you." I smiled and nodded yes. Today we had a regular day and nothing much happened. After class, the kids were dressed and left.

"You need to get dressed since you'll be stripping at the assembly after the last period."

"Yes, it's hard to strip if you are already naked" she laughed.

"Kris, do you know who is going to have to put up with John for his compulsory week in the program?"

"Oh yes, It's going to be Sharon Jeffers."

"You make it very difficult to share a secret with you when you already know them all," said Miss Stevens and we both giggled.

"Sharon doesn't want to do the program because her tits are huge and she is self-conscious about them. She gave Jeff a blowjob for relief in first period and we talked about the program during break. She trusted us and showed them to us. I think they look nice and I told her so, Jeff agreed. We told her that we knew she was going to be in the program and that we will be there to support her. She was pleased we told her."

She asked, "Is she just being over critical of herself or are her breasts truly large?"

"You know she's shorter than me, I think they have to be a big D or a double D. Therefore, they are big but they look good on her. After she left talking to us I saw her loosen up by undoing a couple of buttons on her top." Then the bell rang, I walked with her to the gym for assembly.

We met Jeff and we all sat together.

Mrs. McDonald walked to the podium and tapped the mike. THUMP, THUMP. There were shouts from the back of the auditorium that the system is working that was greeted by general laughter.

She adjusted the mike and welcomed us to our first weekly Friday assembly. Once the noise settled down, Mrs. McDonald explained how the administration had restarted the program with Kris and Jeff and they had done a great job. The program was already running better than it was before. Many of the boys cheered and most of the girls giggled because they had their exemptions signed.

Everyone looked around wondering who would be the victims for the second week. She went on to mention, the biggest change from the old program was the buddy system and that volunteers would be able to choose their buddy. This way, couples could go through it together if they wanted to.

She said, "Now I want to have Miss Jordan and Miss Stevens to the stage, they are in charge of the program in their own parts of the school. Miss Jordan has the High School and Miss Stevens has the Middle School. Middle school will be starting their first week in the program today. Now I'd like to have Kris Thompson and Jeff James come up here." She thanked both of us for giving a great week. "Now I'll pass the mike over to Miss Stevens."

Miss Steven said, "I'll start by telling the middle school students why the program is moving over there. It all started Monday when my teacher's aide, Kris, came to class naked. My fifth grade health class asked if they could join her being naked. I told them to bring notes with their parents' permission. If I got the okay from Mr. Harris, we would start the next day. Mr. Harris told Kris and me that they were planning to start the program in Middle school next semester anyway, so we got the okay. The next day I had 13 of my 20 kids naked. After class on Tuesday, I talked with Kris about how careful we would have to be when choosing kids to start the program. Kris said she knew who would be the right kids and after she explained why, I decided that they were excellent choices. Now let us meet the students who will start the Middle school program this week. I would like to have these kids come up on stage: Steph and Kevin Thompson, Joe Smith, Sandy, Jimmy and Suzy James. Now I'll pass the mike to Miss Jordan." The room went completely quiet.

Miss Jordan said, "I have the honor to tell you that we have four doing the program in the high school. The first two volunteered and they are Shirley Smith and Brian Shaw. The second couple is Sharon Jeffers and John Jacobs. John is in serious trouble because he attacked a student in the program and that put him straight in it. Sharon is in the program because her mother requested it. Will all the new participants please come up to the stage?"

"NO WAY! I'm NOT going to do the program especially with that Jeffers bitch!" yelled John.

Mrs. McDonald said, "You have several choices to make here John. First is that if you refuse to do the program you will be immediately expelled from Wilson High. Second is that I have had a meeting with your parents and that if you are expelled you will be sent to a military boarding school to teach you some discipline. So it's your choice, either come up here or wait for me at the office and I will get your parents down here for your expulsion."

Was he ever pissed as he walked up on the stage to join the other kids?

She added, "Let this be a lesson to you all. If you disrespect anyone in the program, you will be in it yourself. There will be some punishments that will not be fun as well. It does not matter if you have already done the program, you will be back in it. I expect that no one who has done the program would act in such a bad manner. Do not think that being in the program is a punishment, we believe it will be good for you."

She spoke into the mike and they all settled down. "Now, for the moment you didn't even know you were waiting for, The Grand Unveiling!"

Everyone started hooting and calling for us to strip. The chorus, scattered throughout the auditorium started an impromptu strip song. She had everyone pair off. Miss Jordan was nice and walked over to John so Miss Stevens was with Sharon. She said, "I want the girls to remove the guy's pants now." Miss Stevens whispered, "Go ahead and take mine off." Sharon did. She said, "Now guys you take off the girl's skirt" They all did. Then she said, "Please keep taking off clothes in turn until you are all naked except for your shoes and socks."

When they got the blouses off all the girls, the crowd were yelling and screaming. Since none of the boys were wearing T-shirts, they reached around the back of the girls and took off their bras; the pile of clothes was getting bigger and bigger. There were all sizes of tits on the stage, from A cups to the DD's of Miss Jordan and Sharon. Sharon was the last to reach around and take Miss Stevens' bra off. The girls then took the boys underwear off, which included Miss Jordan. Next the boys took the girls panties off and there 12 more naked people on stage with Kris and Jeff. Mrs. McDonald walked up and thanked everyone for coming to the first strip off and with show of support she had also stripped naked.

You should have seen the look on everyone face, she said, "From now on anyone who wants to be naked is allowed to be naked. This is now a 'clothing Optional' school. The Superintendent and his board of directors have just notified me of this new policy. Middle school students will still need notes from your parent to participate." Then the bell rang and it was time for the kids to go home or go to practice.

Part 4 - Jeff

Kris gave Miss Jordan and Miss Stevens her address and said we would be ready to go home after practice.

Miss Stevens said, "I'll be with Miss Jordan in her room talking about the changes to the program."

We headed to practice and to our surprise, every member of both teams was naked. Jodi Carey did not come to training. Practice was short but sharp; we had a very good workout.

We walked into Miss Jordan's room, Sharon was there also, still naked with the biggest smile I have ever seen on her. She said, "You know I never had that much fun in my whole life and the week is just beginning. I called my mom and she said I can come over."

Miss Jordan said, "I never thought I could do it, but I didn't want her have to be with John so I went over there."

Sharon said, "Thank you for doing that, I knew I could do it, but not with that big jerk, I sure don't feel safe around him."

Kris said, "Oh my god! Has he ever changed since he broke up with me just because I did the program?"

"He has always been mean to me Kris; I don't think you got to see the real John even with him being your boyfriend. You are so much better off with Jeff; he is a really nice guy."

We gathered our stuff and headed off for our swimming party.

I told our teachers that they could follow us to the party. We all headed out of school. When we got to the van, Brian was parked next to us with Shirley beside him and Steph was in the back seat with Joe.

Shirley said, "It looks like we're taking your sister home with us." We all started laughing, then hopped in the van and the rest of our sibs were already there. Miss Stevens pulled up behind us, Sharon was with her. She was being followed by Miss Jordan. I started the van and we headed over to Kris' house for a little swimming party.

Kris said, "Mom, I've brought a bunch of friends over for a swimming party. Everyone who will be in the program next week, plus Miss Stevens and Miss Jordan, but no John and I don't ever want to see him again."

Steph said, "Mom, they have made the whole school 'Clothing Optional' now. We get wrist bands to wear so people can tell who is in the program."

Mom said, "Wow that is some news, so I get to meet your partner now?"

Steph said, "This is Joe and beside him is his sister Shirley and her friend Brian." She leaned over and kissed Joe on the cheek.

Part 5 - Kris

"Mom, this is Miss Stevens, the teacher I aide with and this is Miss Jordan, she's in charge of the high school program. Last but not least this is Sharon Jeffers, who is supposed to be John's partner."

Mom said, "Thank you all for coming over and have fun in the pool." We all headed out, went for a swim, and relaxed for a while.

Sharon said, "You know I've having so much fun, thanks for inviting me over."

Miss Steven said, "Well I think it's time for me to head home and get ready for tomorrow. I'll see you all there and I'll be naked." She turned and asked, "Sharon would you like a ride home?"

Sharon said, "I wasn't planning on going tomorrow but now I have friends to hang around with I'll go. Yes thanks, I'd like a ride home."

Miss Jordan said, "I'm leaving too, but thanks for inviting me also." I looked around the pool everyone was sitting with his or her partner except Jimmy and Suzy. However, they were still having fun.

A while later, Brian said he had to go because his family had plans for later on. Brian, Shirley and Joe got ready to leave.

Steph was not happy to see Joe leave and Joe said, "Sometime I'm going have to take you home to meet my parents."

Steph said, "That sounds like a real good idea." She pulled him to her and kissed him goodbye. She walked to the door and out to Brian's car. She went over and spent sometime with Jimmy and Suzy, so she would not be so bored.

Jeff said, "I think we should go home also, it's going to be a long day tomorrow."
